HOSPITAL SHIP NEEDS MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

An urgent appeal has come from a hospital ship for the following musical instruments: an accordion, banjo, two guitars and two ukuleles. Perhaps you have one of these instruments stored away? If you have one of these instruments, will you please call Mrs. Ernest A. Hale, Big, 3465, Chairman of Music, Division of Federation of Women's Clubs before December 15th?

Aldermen Turn Down Bid To Change Zoning On Highland Avenue

A petition filed by Helen Landy for a change of zoning of land at 9 Highland avenue, Newtonville and the driveways from Highland avenue and Austin street from general residence to business district, was rejected by the Newton Board of Aldermen at their meeting on Monday night. The claims and rules committee had voted 4 to 3 against the petition as announced by Chairman Inches and the board accepted the committee report by a vote of 10 to 9.

This was the second attempt made to have this property rezoned, a hearing having been held on the matter last month. It had been proposed to establish a public market on Walnut street at Highland avenue, and in order to provide a parking space in the rear of the market it would have been necessary to change the zoning of the property mentioned in the petition.

Alderman Carroll Hoffman stated that one objector at the hearing who had been opposed to use of the land as a private parking area said he was in favor of the use of the land as a public parking area. Following the rejection of the petition, Alderman Donald M. Gibbs declared that a parking problem existed in the section and made a motion that a special committee be appointed to investigate the situation with a view to recommending a solution. The motion was unanimously passed.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

State Department

One of the most encouraging developments since Nov. 7 is the current reorganization of the State Department in Washington. It was, of course, unfortunate that Cordell Hull, who has served with distinction for many years should be forced out of the picture on account of his failing health. Frankly, he was one of the very few cabinet members who held the confidence and respect of members of both political parties. It is hoped on all sides that he will eventually be available for conference and assistance to those now in charge of this most vital of all departments.

The papers have played up the fact that Edward Stettinius is the youngest Secretary of State since the days of George Washington. Personally, I am much more interested in his qualifications for his new position and in his chance for success in the tremendous task of securing permanent world-wide peace. He is a brilliant businessman, is well-versed in the methods of the administration and has shown marked ability in getting along with members of Congress. Offhand, I know of no important handicaps under which he will labor.

How about the other new faces in this department? The best appointment, by all odds, is that of Joseph C. Grew as Under-Secretary. Grew is a trained diplomat with a wide range of experience. His vast knowledge of Asiatic affairs should prove of special value in the trying days ahead. He served with distinction as Ambassador to Japan and doubtless knows more about the Japs than any living American. Messrs. Clayton, Rockefeller and MacLeish will unquestionably fill the shoes of Berle, Long and Shaw. As a matter of fact, Adolph Berle, the former Harvard infant prodigy, has long been a storm-center in the Department of State. My impression has been that he was far too radical for his post. Furthermore, it was rumored for a long time that he was one of those who undermined Sumner Welles and eventually caused his retirement.

In view of the great importance of our Latin-American relations, Nelson Rockefeller will now help to fill this gap. It is conceivable that he may prove to be even more capable than Welles in dealing with Latin-American problems. Ickes and Perkins. Loud-mouthed Harold and Madame Perkins are now the only two cabinet members who have been in Mr. Roosevelt's inner circle from the beginning of his administration. "The Great Silence," as I should like to christen Madame Perkins, in contrast to "The Voice," (Frank Sinatra, just in case my readers are not familiar with this remarkable gentleman) will almost surely be replaced before very long by somebody who can and will do something intelligent and constructive in regard to labor. The Madame is the worst appointment the President ever made and the chances are that he knows it. There is some doubt as to whether or not she will be succeeded by another woman or by a man. Any change, however, will be beneficial. Furthermore, if you should consult our own Bill Cunningham, you would doubtless be advised that any change at all from Harold Ickes would be a help. Bill has been conducting a one-man campaign against this torrid gentleman for several years.

Records

It is a pity that Frankie Kelly refused to be consistent and refrain from yelling for a recount after his defeat at the hands of Clarence Barnes for Attorney General. You may recall that Kelly is on record to the effect that if he should ever be defeated by 9,000 votes, (the margin by which he defeated Leverett Saltonstall in 1936) he would most certainly NOT ask for a recount. Here he is, defeated by 14,000 votes by Barnes and he demands a recount! Past experience indicates that there is almost no chance that the original verdict will be reversed. In the meantime, the state is forced to spend thousands of dollars and waste a great deal of manpower in order to satisfy Frankie, who has taken so many lickings during the past decade that it is no longer funny. When his own party turns him down again and again and again it is reasonable to expect that this noisy nuisance might see the light. He would have been well-advised if he had followed Lawrence Curtis's excellent example after his unexpected defeat by Burrell in the July primaries. Gurry refused to delay the sending of ballots to our soldiers and sailors and marines and took his defeat like a man.

Voting Machines

When will our distinguished City Fathers see the light and decide to install voting machines? Brookline has had a number in operation for several years and is planning to continue the installation until the entire Town is covered. According to the papers, Cambridge, Lowell and Melrose are now working on this problem. Boston, likewise, is on the job. Why cannot we in Newton get in line and make our contribution to efficiency and economy?

NEW CITIZEN

To Warrant Officer Henry E. Gough, U.S.A. Medical Corps, and Mrs. Gough (Rita Caron) of Newton a daughter, Patricia. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Caron of Montreal, Canada and Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Gough of Newtonville and Wareham. It is anticipated that when the news reaches Harry, who is somewhere in Europe, he will be particularly overjoyed that his son now has a sister who is the first girl in the family in almost thirty years.

S-Sgt. Walker
Bails Out of Plane

Staff Sgt. Charles E. Walker, Jr., 21, son of Sgt. Charles E. Walker of the Newton Police Department and Mrs. Walker, was forced to bail out of his disabled plane while on his 34th mission over Belgium following a raid on the synthetic oil center at Merseburg, Germany. All ten members of the crew parachuted to safety and were picked up by British soldiers. The plane landed intact. While on their way back to their base in England they stopped at Brussels where they had Thanksgiving dinner.

Sgt. Walker has been awarded the Air Medal and three Oak Leaf Clusters. He has been in the service for nearly two years and landed in England on June 6 of this year.

"WHAT'S COOKIN' IN NEWTON"

DECEMBER 7, 1944

Merry-Go-Round -

we're told they are with you. It's all quite a mystery. They're still making the things, but no one seems to be getting them. Little known brands held out for awhile, but now, even those mixtures of straw and cabbage leaves are unobtainable. Cigars used to be. We have them no longer, other than an occasional box of Smellonors or the like. Recently, in the Waldorf, the featured two unknown (to us) brands, "Matrimoniums" and "Piccadillys." We can't recommend them for nobody we know took a chance. . . . The Japs are now referring to us as "Albino Apes." . . . What's Cookin' is just one year old this issue. The Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs of Newton bear the financial burden. Members of both clubs compile the bits of Newton news for your perusal and it's the hope of all of us that the paper helps a little as you journey in the far places. . . . Of Man Winter is with us and several recent early mornings the mercury flirted in the vicinity of zero. . . . The gals are wearing heavy clothing as they shiver their way to the defense plants in the early morning darkness. Slacks are warm and many of the ladies wear them. However, there must be a touch of style somewhere, so open toed shoes are worn as proof, seemingly, that the gals are still feminine in their own peculiar way. . . . Christmas shoppers are out in force. The shopping centers are crowded, particularly on shopping nights when those who work in the daytime catch up on their needs. We've seen no Christmas decorations as yet and the shoppers are quiet as they move from one store to another. . . . The Sixth War Loan drive is on and Newton is hearing its goal in the rapid manner. . . . Those synthetic tires are standing up pretty well. One taxi operator run a set over 17,000 miles and there's still plenty of tread left on them. Retreads, too, are doing all right. Many of them are turning up 12,000 miles and more. . . . There's a silly little gag going around town concerning the lad who, entering an oasis, ordered two drinks. When the bartender served him, he drank one, pouring the other into his inside coat pocket. Ordering two more, he repeated the performance. The bartender, amazed, decided he'd inquire as to the general idea. Throwing the stuff away wasn't his idea of the proper etiquette in his jern. . . . The tub resented his curiosity, becoming furious. He ranted and raved, finally, putting a fist under the bartender's nose, he shouted: "I've a good mind to punch you in the snoot!" . . . Just then, before he could put his threat into action, there was a commotion in his inside pocket and a mouse, his eyes bloodshot, popped out and snarled: "Yeah, and that goes for your cat, too!"

MAYOR GODDARD
URGES SUPPORT OF
T. B. DRIVE

A proclamation calling public attention to the 40th anniversary of the founding of the National Tuberculosis Association and urging the citizens to support the fight against the disease by purchasing Christmas seals was issued recently by Mayor Paul M. Goddard.

The proclamation follows: "The year 1944, is the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the National Tuberculosis Association and the sale of the first Christmas Seal to support a health program."

Although the death rate from tuberculosis has declined seventy-five per cent during these forty years, much can still be done to save the lives of thousands of our citizens each year. Furthermore there is the danger that the incidence of tuberculosis may increase in time of war.

The Massachusetts Tuberculosis Association is constantly waging its effective battle. Let us cooperate and assist by purchasing Christmas seals throughout our City, and in this way give our wholehearted support to this very necessary work."

NEWTON HIGH SCHOOL

"Junior Miss," the senior class play, was well applauded by two capacity audiences, November 17 and 18. It was ably coached by Miss Helen Sweeney of the business department.

The English Club offered the pupils a special treat at the November meeting, a Faculty Play Reading. The play was "The Mollusc," a comedy in three acts. In the cast were Miss Helen White, Daniel Koughan, Miss Lucille Jones, T. Jerome Cutting, and Mrs. Leo Barry, coach and narrator.

Miss Miles' sophomore design class is once again at work on water color for the Red Cross. As was done last year these paintings will be framed before being distributed. In a letter dated last July 13th, Miss Miles was informed "All the paintings done by your pupils have been hung in the hospital ward, St. Olaf, for the enjoyment of our wounded men." The St. Olaf, an ex-liberty ship, was recently converted to accommodate 597 patients, and turned over to the Army.

MISS LUDY, NEW
SECRETARY OF FAMILY
SERVICE BUREAU

On Dec. 1, Miss Jane Ludy assumed her new duties as General Secretary of the Family Service Bureau of Newton, Inc., replacing Miss Harriet Parsons who recently left for St. Louis. Miss Ludy is especially well equipped for the work both from her educational background and her practical experience. After graduating from the University of Illinois she was engaged in public welfare work in Iowa for six years. In 1939 she obtained her master's degree in social science at Smith, securing her psychiatric training at Essex County Mental Hygiene Clinic in New Jersey.

Following her three years as a case worker with the Family Service Association in Washington, D. C., Miss Ludy came to the Family Office of Boston in 1942 later becoming the Allston-Brighton District Secretary which position she leaves to take up her work in Newton. For the two years she has been in Boston Miss Ludy has been associated with Simmons School of Social Work supervising students.

Newton's Family Service Bureau is recognized as one of the outstanding organizations of its kind in New England, having four trained case workers. Its reputation, developed over half a century is well deserved because of the varied and progressive program it has developed to meet the changing needs of the community.

Message -

anniversary issue of "What's Cookin' in Newton" renews our determination that when you have brought victory in this war there must never again be a Pearl Harbor.

The people of Massachusetts hold you very close to their hearts wherever you may be throughout the earth. You are doing a magnificent job. In Newton we are doing our best to back you up with War Bonds and in every way that we can on the home front. We are not going to let you down for a minute until this war is finally won and the longed-for day comes when you will be back home again. You will not have sacrificed in vain. Our country remains secure and free; and if the spirit of Peace on Earth, Goodwill to men once more prevails. May we on the home front carry on with you to the end that peace may be soon again and men be brothers throughout the world. I wish you a happy Christmas and good luck for the New Year.

VOL. II, No. 1.

NEWTON, MASS., U.S.A., DECEMBER 7, 1944

Issued Twice A Month

A PRAYER
For those away from home at the Holiday
Seasonby
Rev. Charles T. AllenPastor
Newton Methodist Church

Almighty God, who dost hold in the hollow of Thy hand the very breath of our being, we would remember before Thee those whom we miss from our family tables and familiar assemblies at this Season of the year. Wherever they may be, bless and safeguard them. And if it be Thy will, restore them to the companionship of their loved ones, who so anxiously and affectionately await the day of their returning. For Thy great mercy's sake, Amen.

Urges Service Men and Women To Fill Out
Questionnaire

The Citizens' Advisory Committee for Returning Veterans has recently sent out to overseas addresses a short questionnaire asking information about your education and employment before you ordered the service, and what you are thinking about doing after discharge. A return addressed envelope is provided to send the answers back to Newton.

"When one of these questionnaires come to you," asks Charles B. Floyd, chairman of the committee, "will you please take the little trouble required to fill it out and send it back? Please do this even if you can see no reason for ever calling upon the committee for help."

With more than 8000 in service, it is obvious that hurried, last-minute measures taken after the veterans return cannot be as good as those which can be more carefully planned while there is still time.

The information these questionnaires ask for will be of great help to Newton NOW, and may turn out to be helpful to you personally when you come back. So when one comes your way, do your stuff.

PARENTS ATTEND "BACK TO SCHOOL NIGHT"

Nearly 500 parents took part in the "Back to School Night" program at the first meeting of the season of the John W. Weeks Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association at the school in Newton Centre.

Parents reported to their children's home rooms at 8 o'clock and were given eight minute classes to show the daily routine. The parents went from one classroom to another and to the school cafeteria. A group of students assisted by keeping the lines to the right and in single file into the cafeteria.

Newton Merry-Go-Round

By Paul Considine

With everyone here following reports of the terrific fighting going on outside Aachen and being as how it's generally believed that the outcome there will possibly point to the end of major German resistance, there's been little going on in the Garden City other than the old routine going to work, reading the newspapers, listening to the radio commentators and, after sleeping the sleep of the more or less just, doing it all over again the next day.

The repeated bombings of Tokyo have stirred the country and are a definite proof of your advances and achievements in the Pacific. Every bomb dropped on the capitol of the Myopic Monkeys, is a reminder that the Fiddler's about to collect his bill for the dance they enjoyed over Pearl Harbor on the morning of December 7th, 1941.

GHOST PLANE . . .

The story of a "Ghost Plane" that after gliding to a perfect landing in Belgium, was found to be minus its crew, had the whole country wondering what had happened over there in Hitler's copyrighted sky. The plane, a big U. S. bomber, was pretty badly shot up and the newspapers, radio newscasters and the rest of us, did much speculating over the mysterious plane and its missing personnel.

One of the news agencies caught up with the story, a real thriller, a few days ago. It seems that the bomber setting out to drop a few calling cards on one of Adolf's pet cities, had its engines, reached its objective, but having stopped considerable quantities of flak on the way, its bomb-bay doors were jammed shut. While hovering over the target, its crew striving mightily to repair the damage, the ship was hit again directly under the live bombs. Luckily, they didn't explode, the shell merely loosening the doors, so that when the riddled ship was hit squarely once again, the doors were blown open and the bombs fell away.

The ship having been struck repeatedly, was now out of control and several flashes of fire streaked through its interior, the crew parachuted to safety, landing on Belgian soil where British soldiers treated them to Thanksgiving dinner. A dinner of which, it seems reasonable to suppose, the crew really gave thanks. . . .

One of our better known police sergeants, Charles E. Walker, is fervently giving thanks, too, for reports, young Charlie is none the worse for his experience and is on the go again. Charles St., however, is suffering from semi-shell shock.

Kiwanians To Hear Irving T. MacDonald

Ladies' night was observed by local Kiwanians and their wives on Wednesday night, December 6 at the Newton YMCA. A wonderful turkey dinner was enjoyed by 74 members and guests. During the dinner music was provided by Mary Doherty at the piano and xylophone solos were rendered by Clarence J. Hutchings. Between courses community singing with solos by Wally Finlay, Archie Belinger and Spike Lieberman was led by the general chairman of the Ladies' Night Committee, Jack Janse. Fred Moore, one of the newer members, also entertained with a whistling specialty. President Walter Hood then introduced a couple of Navy men who showed two very stirring films, Dec. 7, "The Attack of Pearl Harbor" and "Return to Guam," both the pictures and men being furnished through the courtesy of the First Naval District. Dancing to the tune of records was enjoyed by all. It was announced that the speaker for the meeting next Tuesday noon will be Irving T. MacDonald, the noted news analyst of Radio Station WEEI.

Newton Highlands Woman's Club

The Newton Highlands Woman's Club has been saying "Merry Christmas" for the last two months: saying "Merry Christmas" to children in England by sending ninety-two toys; saying "Merry Christmas" to sick soldiers by contributing two hundred and five articles plus a sum of money for the War Relief Christmas bags; and by forty hours of service wrapping packages for same. We have sent Christmas cheer in fifty bags of gifts to the Veterans in the Rutland Hospital.

Besides this, five blankets were made for the War Relief Layettes and eight children's new sweaters have been donated. And the usual amount of knitting is going on at the same time.

The Newton Highlands Woman's Club enjoyed a delightful Tuesday afternoon with Virginia Anderson and her "Colorful New England through the Seasons" with Natural Color Slides.

Woman's Charity Club Bazaar

Mrs. Solomon Townsend, Jr., Orchard avenue, Waban, is a member of the committee in charge of the bazaar table at the Woman's Charity Club bazaar to be held on December 4 at the Brightelm-stone Club House, 541 Cambridge street, Brighton, for the benefit of the Massachusetts Women's Hospital. Mrs. Seth Swift, Rice street, Newton Center, will assist at the "Old and New" table at the bazaar and Mrs. A. Gordon Wein, Walden street, Newtonville, will serve on the dining room committee.

"More Pen Grins" Excellent Gloom Chaser

One of the fourteen authors who were featured at the Boston University Bazaar on December 1 was Louise Dyer Harris of Newtonville. Mrs. Harris is a graduate of the College of Liberal Arts of Boston University. Bostonians are familiar with her verse, which has appeared in the Boston Herald for the last fourteen years, and with her voice in radio interviews by Alice Dixon Bond and others over several Boston stations. Her serious poetry and articles have appeared in several national magazines and in newspapers like the Christian Science Monitor and the Sunday Springfield Republican. She served as poetry editor of "Yankee" magazine.

"More Pen Grins" is proving a happy successor to Mrs. Harris' first book of light verse, "Pen Grins". Both books have laughing penguins on their covers. In fact the books have been used both as "gloom-chasers", as Alice Dixon Bond called them in the Boston Herald, and to please people who collect penguins, like Roland Young, who wrote a delightful personal note of appreciation to the author. A similar note came a few weeks ago from Billie Burke. "More Pen Grins" is a particularly jolly accessory of the holiday season. The "Army Times" commends the "easy and charming" verse. Robert F. Tristram Coffin announced his "Primer For America" with best wishes for Louise Dyer Harris, whose "More Pen Grins" I enjoy and admire. Some of her verses are to be included in a forthcoming anthology of British and American humor which is being edited by David McCord.

Mrs. Harris is a past president of the Newtonville Woman's Club and other organizations. She is a member of the Boston Authors' Club. She lectures in New England on poetry and humor under such titles as "The Poet's Funny-bone". Recently she spoke at a large dinner meeting in Manchester, Conn., and her spring schedule will take her to Keene, N. H.; Williamstown, Conn.; Fall River; West Springfield; and to many local groups for Presidents' Days and Annual Luncheons.

The Library at Newtonville, where she serves on the Art Committee has her enthusiastic interest. With an outstanding committee, she initiated a pre-war series of Poetry Evenings, held in the community room of the Library. These evenings, high popular and established a Poetry Fund of substantial size for the Newtonville Branch Library.

WHAT'S COOKIN' IN NEWTON, BOX 55, NEWTON 58, MASS.

What's Cookin' in Newton has now been "cookin' on the front burner" for one full year. Every two weeks since December 9, 1943, copies of your paper have been sent overseas through the efforts of the Newton Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs. This "Pearl Harbor Day" issue marks the fact that in this past year a total of more than 25,000 copies have been mailed overseas.

The only thing that makes us unhappy is the fact that some of these copies never get to you because of changes of address due to rotation, new assignments, etc. We wish we could emphasize to you that the What's Cookin' mailing list is the most complete list of overseas addresses for Newton servicemen and women that is obtainable. We also wish we could emphasize the fact that when you change your address it is almost impossible for us to know it unless you tell us.

We have been co-operating with the Citizens Service Committee to Newton Servicemen, the Citizens' Advisory Committee for Returning Veterans and with the V-mail Boy Scout Committee by addressing their envelopes to you. We and they are all very anxious to keep you informed of their efforts in your behalf. They are doing a mighty fine job for you.

Since these other organizations depend upon us for overseas addresses it would be a big help to all of us if you would keep us informed of changes in your address. We know just how busy you are in doing the grand job we have been reading about; but won't you please be sure to keep us informed of any changes in your address by writing to us at Box 55, Newton, Massachusetts.

You do this much for us and we will take care of the rest.

Benjamin Louis, General Chairman.

'BUY TO HOLD' SLOGAN ADOPTED FOR BOND DRIVE

The slogan for the Sixth War Loan Drive in Newton is "Buy to Hold," Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, chairman of the Women's Division of the War Finance Committee announced November 24.

Mrs. Hay's statement follows: "Buy to hold" is the slogan for Newton's Sixth War Loan drive for buyers of "E" bonds and other individual sales. Our overall quota for this drive is $7,723,000. Of interest to the public is the statement by the United States Treasury Department that Series E Bonds were first issued on May 1, 1941, aggregate sales from then through Oct. 31, 1944, have been 27.3 billions. During that entire period 3.8 billion were redeemed, that left 23.5 billions or 86.1 per cent of all sales in the hands of the original owners. So we are advising Bond owners to hold their bonds, and continue this good record. Your bond has a future. The Newton Federation of Women's Clubs will again assist the Newton War Finance Committee in the drive to reach Newton's quota by staffing booths in the many banks throughout the city where they will sell bonds.

The dollar credit of all sales in these booths goes towards Newton's quota, the Honorary Credit of sales to the Women's Club staffing the booth, and any worker selling $10,000 worth of Bonds will receive a special Treasury Citation. The Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs is asking each of their districts to buy through this Honorary Credit a Hellicat Dive Bomber at a cost of $88,500.

ROTARY CLUB

Bishop Bruce R. Baxter of the Methodist Church was the guest speaker at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Newton Rotary Club held November 24th at the Brae Burn Country Club. The Bishop, a Rotarian for 25 years and presently a member of the Portland, Oregon Club, was introduced by Howard Selby.

The speaker related his experience in the Orient, presented a graphic and interesting biographical sketch of the life of Madame Chiang Kai Shek. He reviewed the history of the Soong family in the South; Miss Soong's experience as an undergraduate at Wellesley College; her return to China, where she served the people of China; and finally her marriage to Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek—an unusual marriage ceremony, when customs of East and West were combined.

Madam Chiang Kai Shek, she acted as interpreter for the Generalissimo; served as hostess; received an honorary commission in the Chinese Air Force, and was instrumental in forming the "Flying Tigers." Listed among her many accomplishments was her safe return of the Generalissimo when he was kidnapped and held as a political hostage.

The Bishop described Madame Chiang Kai Shek as the great lady of today's world and lauded her remarkable feat in engineering sense of humor, and perfectly balanced mind. He closed his talk with a stirring pronouncement by Madame Kai Shek on an occasion when she was weary from travel and overwork: "Yes I am tired, there is a limit to physical endurance—there is no limit to spiritual resources."

Carl Bowman, manager of Brae Burn Country Club, was installed as a new member by long-time Rotarian Mathew Ruane.

Sports in a Nutshell

By Bill Sullivan

What's Cookin' celebrates its first anniversary this December, and a good start we go into our second year by defeating our old rivals from Brookline, 26-7, Thanksgiving morning here at Newton. On the third play from scrimmage Bob DiBlasio dropped back into punt formation, took the ball and crossing up the entire Brookline team, sprinted down the left side for 83 yards for the first touchdown and a great thrill for the 8000 spectators.

Moffie and Brennan did great work in the end zone to the Newton 11 and stopped Brookline's threat to score. Brookline tied the score in the second period on a touchdown. The game was tied 14-14 when Kirrane recovered the ball when it eluded Brimblecom. Here Newton held them for two plays, then Hal Moffie whipped a pass to Kirrane who carried to the three-yard line, losing the ball when he had Bill Sexton recover for Brookline. Here Keith dug himself over for their first and only touchdown. In the final quarter Newton really began to click and had the ball most of the quarter. Bob Seaman ran 32 yards, then he went over for a touchdown. Cogswell and Bryson scored two more touchdowns making the day a complete success breaking Brookline's streak of five straight wins over us and sending all Newtonites happy to their turkey dinner.

Standing of series: Concord edged Lexington 7-6, Malden and Medford fought to a 0-0 draw, Medford turning in a masterpiece in holding heavily favored Malden to a tie and came within an ace of beating them, Malden stopping Medford on the one-yard line. Everett and Chelsea fought to a 6-6 draw. Waltham beat Brookline 13-7.

Notre Dame completely outclassed a favored Georgia Tech Saturday, Nov. 25, defeating them 21-0. 29,000 watched the Irish put it all over the Engineers. Notre Dame scored in less than five minutes in the opening quarter. Brennan scored around end for 10 yards after a march of 44 yards for the first touchdown. Brennan scored again in the third quarter and Kelly went over for the final touchdown in the last quarter. Notre Dame had 19 first downs to Tech's 9 and made 260 yards rushing to 57 yards for Georgia Tech. The Irish completed 9 out of 14 passes for 122 yards. Tech completed 9 out of 29 passes for 80 yards.

Ohio beat Michigan 18-14. Dartmouth beat Columbia 18-0. Brown 32, Colgate 20; Duke 33; Columbia 0. When they set them down Sunday 30-14, Holy Cross scored 3 times in the second quarter, Sheridan and Cahill going over for touchdowns. Halliday scored the third one. Sheridan and Cahill scored touchdowns in the third quarter. Boston College scored 2 touchdowns in the final quarter. Elliott of B. C. scoring both touchdowns.

The Army came thru Saturday afternoon, Dec. 2, to whip the Navy 23-7, and proved they were a great and powerful team, with a lot of being crowned as kings of the gridiron. Held by the Middles in the first quarter, the Cadets showed their stuff in the second when Firson intercepted a pass on his own 27, Davis went around the end for 15 yards, and he and Blanchard took turns carrying the ball to the Navy 15 losing here on downs. Hamburg kicked the Navy out of danger but Hall then came thru for 12 yards. Blanchard broke thru for 10 and Davis went around right for 21. Hall then went over left tackle for 24 yards and the first touchdown. Navy then marched 79 yards for its only touchdown, Clyde Scott carrying the ball over Army came right then back and Blanchard went thru for a touchdown. Davis by some long printing scored the final touchdown on a 50-yard run. Dick Whitehouse kicked all goals, bringing his total to 47 out of 59 tries, breaking the old record of 44 out of 57 made by Laforce of Tulsa two years ago. Davis scored his 20th touchdown to become high individual scorer.

Notre Dame came thru again defeating Great Lakes 28-7. Great Lakes scored first in the second quarter but Notre Dame scored in the second and third quarters and twice in the final quarter.

Montreal Canadiens defeated the Bruins 4-1 for their third straight win over our Boston team. The Bruins set a fast pace. Thanks-giving night by trouncing the Toronto Maple Leafs 5-1. Pat Egan scored the first goal on a pass from Cowley. Cain, the second goal on a Jennings rebound. Clapper belted in the third on a pass from Gladu. Cowley the fourth on a pass from Crawford and Cain the final goal on a pass from Cowley and Egan. Carr scored the lone Toronto goal in the third period unassisted.

The Bruins beat the Rangers Sunday night 8-4 in a one-sided game, as the Rangers did not really show anything until the Bruins were ahead 8-1. Cowley scored first on a stellar goal on the red line in 34 seconds on a pass from Crawford. Gaudreault the second, Art Jackson the third. Clapper and Jennings the next two. Gaudreault, Jennings and Mario the next three.

Detroit beat Boston 6-3. Flash Hollet got 2 goals and an assist. Bill Jennings got 2 goals. The Bruins skated fast and furious in the second and third periods but could not overcome the Red Wings scored first on a stellar goal on the red line in 34 seconds on a pass from Crawford. Gaudreault the second, Art Jackson the third. Clapper and Jennings the next two. Gaudreault, Jennings and Mario the next three.

The Bruins beat the Hawks in Chicago 7-2 scoring five goals in the final period, Jackson got 2, Cupolo, Smith and Calladine each one. The Bruins beat Toronto 5-4 with the Typhoon line of Frank Mario, Kenny Smith and Bill Cupolo, the three kids scoring

4 of the five goals. Crawford getting the other one. These kids are really starting to go and are giving the Bruins a great lift, they played two wonderful games, the one in Chicago and the one last night and will give the league leaders a merry time Tuesday.

Well Boys if you ever told me I would write this column for a year I would think you or I was away off, but for a pinch hitter they certainly kept me in for a long time, but thanks to Paul Considine I kept at it for Paul is certainly doing a great job as all you Boys who know him can vouch for, and when you all get home just stop in the Corner and say hello to him and watch the Merry-Go-Round there each night. See you on the next shift.

38TH SEASON OF GLEE CLUB

The concert, given by the Highland Glee Club, December 5, at Newton High School auditorium, drew heavily from not only Newton but Greater Boston.

The Glee Club itself had the support of its sponsors in publicizing the fact that this splendid organization, in presenting its regular concert for the 38th consecutive year, planned to make this, as well as the one in March, outstanding.

In addition to Tuesday's program by the club itself, presenting Ruth Diehl to a Newton audience, created unusual interest. Miss Diehl is one of the outstanding younger artists of the country. Not only was her voice excellent and appealing but her ability as an interpreter is what really counts. A discriminating choice of songs likewise indicates keen appreciation of that intangible bond between singer and audience that makes a concert pleasurable.

Organized in 1906, the Club has continued through thick and thin. There have been years when certain difficulties loomed large but because of the interest and faith of its members, the organization retained a small but enthusiastic following, maintaining a place for itself in the artistic and cultural life of the city.

Cub-Scout Friends Speed Newtonville Youth's Recovery

Until he was stricken by rheumatic fever in April of this year, nine-year-old Dick MacMahon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. MacMahon, of 60 Hull street, Newtonville, lived the active, care-free life of any healthy boy of his years. Dick's immediate ambitions, however, centered around a plan upon which his heart was set. When he reached his tenth birthday, he would join Cub Pack 6, Newtonville, one of the units of Scouting sponsored by Newtonville Group, Boy Scouts of America.

Came the long, anxious months of illness, throughout whose darkest hours little Dick's ambition flitted in heartbreaking constancy. His tenth birthday passed, before a real turning point came. At last, a sturdy constitution and the uplifting force of an ambition had taken firm grasp on the borders of recovery. Still one thing remained, for which Dick really wanted to get better—the achievement of his plan.

Finally, Dick grew strong enough. At the happy word from Mrs. MacMahon, the machinery of Norumbega Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, began to work swiftly, efficiently, as the interest in Dick's case grew community-wide. Through Newtonville Group, Cub Pack Six, and waiting Cubmaster Robert G. Toher, came the "go ahead" signal. On November twenty-eighth, Dick looked up with bright eyes and a happy smile, as Cubmaster Toher, and Don Chief Bob Toher, Jr. appeared to bring the Cub Induction Ceremony to his bedside, making Honorary Cub Dick MacMahon a Bobcat of Den 5, Pack 6. No more heartfelt honor has ever been bestowed, than when Dick's mother placed the Cub kerchief on his neck, in the simple, quiet ceremony, and Cubmaster Toher welcomed him with the Cub handshake. No more genuine allegiance has ever been pledged, than when Dick repeated the Cub oath "I, Dick MacMahon, promise to do my best to be square and to obey the law of the Cub Pack."

Night and day, as Dick's recovery continues, he wears the coveted Cub kerchief, until his strength will permit him to romp with his new brother "Bobcats" in their Den. But all eight Dens of Pack 6, numbering 60 boys, are not delaying their welcome. Sixty welcoming cards, a unanimous "get well quick" message, are on their way to Dick. More welcoming cards, from other units of Newtonville Group, are appearing. Come rain, snow, or hail, nothing can dim the loyalty of Cub-Bobcat Dick MacMahon to his Den, nor his zeal as he thumbs the handbook of Cub lore.

MOTHER WRITES POEM TO SON

This is a letter poem that I wrote and sent to my son who is overseas.
He wrote back, and asked me to send it to the Graphic and ask them to print it. So I'm doing as he asked, and if you think it good enough, please put it in the Graphic.

I'm sitting on the porch tonight,
My thoughts are far away
As in your dear sailor boy of mine,
As with my heart I pray.

Pray that God will keep you safe
That you'll return to me
All well and strong, as when you left
To sail the billowing sea.

Do your dear eyes see the Moon tonight

In all her beauty rare,
As I can see, when I raise my eyes
To God's blue sky, up there?

O, boy of mine, what joy 't would be
To have you here tonight
To see your happy elfin smile
To know you were all right.

God bless and guide you, is my prayer,
And soon may that day come,
When you'll come sailing home again
To your anxious, lonely Mom.

Zilda F. Fisher.

Mrs. Brown: I admire Dr. Young immensely. He is so persevering in the face of difficulties that he always reminds me of Patient sitting on a monument.
Mr. Brown: Yes. But what I am becoming rather alarmed about is the number of monuments sitting on his patients.

Red Cross Asks For Xmas Gifts

Newton Red Cross Camp and Hospital Council reports that the following items are still needed and would be most welcome contributions for the coming holiday: 100 filled stockings for Waltham Regional Hospital, containing card, cigar, razor blades, etc.; 100 bottles of shaving lotion (or talcum powder if lotion is unavailable) gift wrapped, to be put in ditty bags for patients at Cushing General Hospital in Framingham.

The Navy is asking for a great many unwrapped gifts, such as writing paper, toilet soap, boxes of candy or games. These gifts will be wrapped by the Navy and distributed to every ship leaving port so that every member of the crew will have a gift on Christmas morning. "Here is a chance," says Mrs. Edward J. Cannon of Newton Camp and Hospital Council, "for any organization to include a most worthwhile project in their Christmas program by contributing a carton or more of any one of these articles."

Packages containing these gifts may be left at the Chapter House on Foster street.

Rev. McClintock Is Lion's Club Speaker

An interesting meeting of the Newton Lions Club was held at the YMCA last Thursday evening, the speaker being Rev. Richard F. McClintock of the Church of the Messiah, Auburndale, whose subject was "Listen, Mr. President."

The talk, while political, according to the speaker, was definitely non-partisan and dealt with the serious obligation which the last election placed on the shoulders of the Chief Executive to whom was given a mandate to take the lead in establishing a Peace which would be just and workable, even if in the establishment it is necessary for us and other nations to relinquish some of our individual national pride.

Speaking in a conversational way, of the President, Mr. McClintock urged him not to forget that there were almost 23 millions that did not vote for him, and would tend to unite them and thus create harmony here at home, rather than a government which would be for only those who had supported him. Continuing, he said, "Listen, Mr. President, as the leader of the greatest nation and the most powerful, it is up to you to see that when this war is over and victory is ours, we must be prepared to insist on certain fundamentals for world peace, and we must take the lead in uniting the nations of the world, under the so-called Big Four, and thus again set up a block of power politics."

The talk was most interesting and thought-provoking and was very well received even though the speaker admitted to being a Rotarian, when introduced.

He was warmly known as "Lion Charlie," the program director.

By unanimous vote of the members a memorial to the late Oscar Canady in the form of a resolution was adopted, and it was also voted that a copy of the resolution be mailed to the family of the late Oscar Canady.

Bill House donated a sweater which was raffled off for the benefit of the funds of the Club. The lucky ticket was drawn by Lion Doggett of the Boston Host Club, and the sweater was won by Asa Blakeslee.

The meeting was presided over by King Lion D. Kennedy and the singing under the capable leadership of Lion Tamer Jack Tapper.

Schools Buy Supplies For Army

Grasshopper Planes, Field Ambulances and Army Mules will be supplied to the Army by the students of the Newton Schools through the purchasing of War Savings Stamps and Bonds as their contribution to the 6th War Loan drive.

"Let's speed the end. Don't fear to lend" or "Keep on giving to keep freedom living" are two of the slogans used by the pupils of the Newton High School to speed up their 6th War Loan drive.

The Peirce School in West Newton and Angier School in Waban will purchase a Flying Jeep or Grasshopper plane which has such a successful record of accomplishment as a Scout Plane, carrying the serious and the light-hearted, they have been equipped with bazookas and have been used to knock out enemy tanks in our drive into Germany.

The revised By-Laws were accepted and the board of present officers and Executive Committee were re-elected to serve for the coming year. These include "Bill" Cunningham of Newton who, in addition to being Chairman of Middlesex County, will act as State Chairman for the 1945 Appeal which opens January 14 and runs through January 31. Other committee members are: 1st Vice-Chairman, E. Everett Clark of Watertown, 2nd Vice-Chairman, Thomas V. Cleveland of Newton, 3rd Vice-Chairman, Dan O'Dea of Lowell, Treasurer, Frederick E. Mr. Cunningham, in his introductory address, gave a brief picture of the Middlesex County Chapter and explained some of the outstanding cases which have received assistance this year.

Mr. Thomas J. Sullivan, Cambridge Librarian, who is the Fund Raising Chairman, gave general suggestions for raising money in our Appeal next month. He spoke of the old slogan which, if changed a bit to fit our needs, would read, "Brother, you can spare a dime." The need of organizing women to help in the Campaign was stressed by Mrs. Sidney A. Berge of Lincoln. Mrs. Berge is State Director of Women's Activities and feels very strongly that more women are needed in handling cases.

Hospital Aid Association Adds New Members

The names of 664 prospective new members were added to the roll of the Newton Hospital Aid Association through the recent membership drive as reported at the meeting of the board of directors of the Aid association at the nurses' home of the hospital on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Frank R. Clark, capable chairman of the membership campaign, who, with her village chairman had worked for two months, sent a written report which was read by Mrs. Cecil Clark. This brings the total membership in the Newton and Wellesley to 1435. Inaugurated in 1880, this is possibly the largest membership the Aid association has attained at any one time.

Mrs. Theron B. Walker, president, called for reports of the other officers and chairmen and the special by-laws committee chairman, Miss Madeline Cobb. Mrs. Francis F. Williams, chairman of the Benefit Shop, reported that $400 was made on the Treasure Sale at the last month's meeting, toward which many of the members donated gifts. She said there are still many requests for roller skates and ice skates at the Shop and the need for bedding is acute. Mittens sell rapidly. One member of the association has knitted 43 pairs. Aprons are in demand and toys with which to decorate the Shop windows are needed also there have been many gifts of toys to date.

Mrs. Walter L. McGill, chairman of the Coffee Shop, reported that 7115 food customers were served in November. This did not include gift shop purchases. She announced that the Coffee Shop committee were transferring $1000 to the treasury of the Aid Association and were recommending that this be added to the amount given by the association last month for the infant-formula room. This was voted, making a total of $3500 given to date by the Aid association for this newest hospital project.

Mrs. McGill and Mrs. Edith Hayes were recent guests of the Salem Hospital Aid Association with two representatives from each of the nine other New England hospital aid groups. The Salem Hospital Coffee Shop was the inspiration and parent of the Newton Hospital Coffee Shop.

Miss Madeline Cobb, special by-laws chairman, read the contemplated changes in the by-laws and these were approved by the directors.

Mrs. Oliver Ames Lothrop and Mrs. Benjamin D. Miller were hostesses, and pourers at morning coffee were Mrs. Edwin F. Gibbs and Mrs. C. A. St. Lawrence.

Newton Exceeds Sixth War Loan Campaign Quota

Individual Sales, However, Still Lagging Behind $3,151,000 Quota; Over $7,723,000 In Bonds Sold Here

Citizens of Newton have until January 1st to reach the War Bond Quota.

Sixth War Loan Bonds have been purchased by individuals in the city to the amount of $2,083,000 against a quota of $3,151,000. This leaves 34% of the quota to be sold before January 1, 1945.

The Newton War Finance Committee reports that the city has exceeded its over-all quota of $7,723,000. This includes sales to corporations and banks. To do a good job on the Sixth War Bond Drive Newton should sell over $1,000,000 more bonds to individuals.

Series E, F, and G Bonds can be purchased before the end of the month and still count on this drive. Chairman Melcher of the War Bond Committee suggests the use of U. S. War Bonds as a Christmas gift--no other present can combine so much good will and at the same time carry such high hopes for a prosperous future.

Results of First Week's Sale of Christmas Seals

A total of $5,342.24 was received last week by the Massachusetts Tuberculosis Association from the sale of Christmas Seals, Mrs. Marcus K. Bryan, campaign chairman, announced. The Seal Sale, to support the wartime tuberculosis control work of the association, began Monday, Nov. 27, and will continue until Christmas.

"The promptness with which so many residents made their returns is most encouraging. If this rate is maintained, we shall have no difficulty in reaching our goal. Our real goal is the wiping out of tuberculosis in our community and the rehabilitation of those who have already been victimized by the disease. The Christmas Seal quota for this year is the amount actually needed to bring us one year nearer that goal in 1945."

Mrs. Bryan said that the interest of residents of Newton in the work of the association was clearly indicated in the letters received last week.

WAR BOND FOR XMAS

How are things this Christmas?
Fine, you say—got all your shopping done. But there's just one thing more. What about that War Bond?

We don't mean the War Bond for you. After six War Loans, you know what they do for you. You know how they keep prices down at home. You know what they mean in new homes, in college for the children, in a secure old age after the war.

But what about that War Bond for the kid next door? He was in on D-Day, remember? And after he broke out of Normandy and raced through France, he'd be home for Christmas, sure.

Well, it looks now as if he'd have a white Christmas. But it won't be at home. It's lonesome in the white snows of Siegfried, lonesome before the white turns black in the mud and mire of battling tanks.

The kid needs food this Christmas. He needs warm clothes. His gun needs bullets and his howitzer, shells. Maybe you haven't all your shopping done.

This war, it isn't "out of the trenches by Christmas." It doesn't look now as if it were "out of the foxhole" or "out of the tanks." The boy must stay there and pitch. It's up to you to pitch, too. Pitch in with your dollars and keep the kid safe with War Bonds. This is the week—the last week of the Sixth War Loan.

WHITE CHRISTMAS?

WE AREN'T worried enough about this to do any research on the matter, but it strikes us that the number of times it has snowed on Christmas Eve—or even a few days before—are relatively few. There's nothing we'd like better than a clean, fresh-washed and pristine blanket of snowflakes over the earth during the Yuletide, but it seems that you can't bank on it.

Yet never in our life have we received a Christmas card in which the scenery was not bedecked with snow. It drips from the trees, paints the rooftops white, provides the only decently acceptable base for a sleighful of colorful characters, sets an excellent contrast for black scottie dogs with red plaid collars, and even saves money for the manufacturers of Christmas cards—for all you have to do is leave a white card blank where you wish to indicate snow. If snow were mauve, for instance, it would raise the price of Christmas cards. The saving here alone, since Christmas cards have been used, probably amounts to billions of dollars, and, if systematically reinvested, would by now be sufficient to pay off the national debt, provide universal social security, and end the war.

In the interests of strict accuracy—to which this newspaper is dedicated and frequently achieves—Christmas cards should be available in scenes directly proportional to the frequency with which it snows on Christmas. For the sake of argument, let us arbitrarily decide that it snows on Christmas two out of every 10 Christmases, and that on the other eight Yuletides it is sort of nasty outdoors.

In that case, it should be necessary to make two Christmas cards with snow on the rooftops and underfoot, mantling the world in beauty. Now for the other eight cards we shall have to be more careful.

For two of them, let us make it a scene in which a beautiful home, with wreaths in the windows, is sitting amid very murky-looking puddles. It has been raining for two days, so the ground looks soggy. There should be some dirty-brown leaves lying around, and the people in the scene are wearing raincoats and old hats.

In the next scene, for which we'll use another pair of cards, it's a fairly nice day—not exactly sunny, but medium bright. It snowed two weeks ago, so the ground is covered with a mixture which is partly gray snow and partly slush, except where the automobiles have worn it away. The people are wearing rubbers.

We'll take two more cards for a scene in which it is so cold nobody is in it. The roads are slick with ice, and cars are moving slowly. In the distance can be seen a car which has just hit a tree. In the foreground is a home covered with icicles so that you can't see the wreaths.

In the last pair of cards, it's really a very nice day, except that the temperature is 72. There are plenty of people, most of them in shirtsleeves, and it is very muddy. They have to wear rubbers and be careful not to wreck the lawn by walking on it. The doorsteps are covered with puddles.

What do you think? We agree with you. Let's pretend it always snows on Christmas. Everybody'll feel better.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

Tobin's Plum-Tree

When Feb. 1, 1945 rolls around there will be quite a few new faces up on Beacon Hill. The six major state offices will be split, three and three, as against four and two, in favor of the G.O.P. Governor-elect Tobin is the man who has caused the shift in power. What I am pointing out now, however, is the substantial overhauling about to be done by Maurice Tobin. There are a great many juicy plums available as the terms of many commission chairmen expire. It is sad but true that a number of distinguished gentlemen who have been gracing the public payrolls will shortly have to find a new job or else retire, provided they have accumulated sufficient wherewithal. The axe is about to fall on many staunch Republicans who have been extremely lucky over a long period and have survived even the advent of Democratic administrations during the past two or three decades. Perhaps the saddest cases are those of Tax Commissioner Henry F. Long and M.D.C. Commissioner "Gene" Hultman. The writer's memory, which is fairly long, does not go back to the days when these gentlemen were employed in the business or professional world. Mr. Long has led a charmed life, politically, and so has Mr. Hultman, though I do recall, with some amazement, the rebuff which Mr. James M. Curley suffered, when Governor, when Mr. Clarence A. Barnes, our Attorney General-elect, succeeded in thwarting the Chief Executive as he attempted to oust the M.D.C. Commissioner.

There are one or two Democrats, too, who may find themselves on the outside, looking in, soon after Mayor Tobin ascends the throne. I have in mind especially that doughty soldier, General Charles H. Cole, who failed of even a nomination for Governor on one occasion. However, the General has invariably landed on some commission, year after year after year. As a matter of fact, he did a fairly good job on the Department of Labor and Industries, even though a good many strikes continued to drag along after this department was called in. What the General will do in the event that Governor-elect Tobin gives him the axe remains to be seen. Mr. Connors of the Racing Commission may also have to find work somewhere. Incidentally, I am not so sure but that it may be a good thing to have a bit of a shake-up. Even the G.O.P. is not above rewarding lame-ducks. Frankly, there are several gentlemen up on Beacon Hill who do not rate their present position.

The 1948 Election has taken place recently which are worthy of mention this week. First was the news story regarding a contemplated reorganization of the high command of the G.O.P. It seems that there are a number of Republicans who were just as half-hearted in their support of Gov. Dewey as they were in their support of Wendell L. Willkie in 1940. I am not suggesting that it was the same group in each instance. As I understand it, different personalities were involved. The point is, however, that Gov. Dewey is about to encounter stiff opposition as soon as he attempts to assert his theoretical leadership of the Republican party. What the result will be is anybody's guess. As I view the situation, it is much too early to attempt to select the G.O.P. candidate for 1948.

The second development ties in closely with the first. Let me quote from a column by David Lawrence in the Dec. 11 Boston Traveler: "The Republicans, in order to win, will virtually have to select their leader in advance. They had better develop and train Gov. Dewey and organize a steering committee of leaders inside and outside of Congress with a huge political organization in every state, active every week of the four-year period, than to begin arguing about rival candidates or to wait until July, 1948, before getting started."

Pvt. J. J. Bannon Killed In Germany

Word that his nephew, Pvt. John J. Bannon, 20, had been killed in action in Germany on November 26, was received from the War Department Tuesday by Sgt. Richard L. Bannon of the Newton Police Department.

Pvt. Bannon had made his home with his uncle for three years prior to entering the Army in June 1943. He was born in Newton, the son of the late Frank and Catherine Bannon of West Newton. He was graduated from the Newton High School in 1942 where he played hockey, track and basketball. After training at Camp Breckinridge, Ky., Fort Bragg, N. C., and at Second Army Headquarters he went overseas in September where he served with the 29th Infantry Division in Holland and Germany.

Cadet Nurse Film Shown At H. S.

Much interest was shown by the student groups in the Girl's Physical Education Classes who saw the cadet nurse film at the Newton High School last week.

Wednesday A.M., just before the Cadet film was shown, Miss Margaret Paquin happened in and was glad to tell the different classes, Sophomore, Junior and Senior, of her experiences as a cadet nurse. Miss Paquin graduated from Newton High School in 1942 and is now in training at the Carney Hospital.

She was very attractive in her snappy U. S. Cadet Nurse uniform and stimulating in her talk.

Information about the Cadet Nurse film can be secured from the Bureau of Motion Pictures, Office of War Information, Washington, D. C. and is entitled "Reward Unlimited."

There is still a dearth of nurses both in the Schools of Nursing and in the military services. Therefore, any nurse reading this article who can give even a small amount of her profession would be contributing greatly as a war measure.

Exhibitions at Newtonville

During the month of December there will be on exhibit at the Newtonville Branch Library Landscape and Marine Paintings by David P. Wilson of Lexington. For the same period in the cases, Madeleine Barrett of Newton Highlands has loaned the library her Dallen Memorabilia. The library is open daily from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Closed Sundays and Holidays.

Lawrence makes this statement after commencing his column with the following sensational sentence: "Unless some illness or disability not now foreseen stands in the way, President Roosevelt will be a candidate for a fifth term." This prophecy flabbergasts your columnist, especially in view of the current mess which the administration appears to have gotten us into. I refer, of course, to the present situation in Greece, where two of our allies are now fighting each other and giving the Nazis and the Japs a chance to laugh long and loudly at the lack of unity among the United Nations. If the Grecian tragedy is one of the direct results of the Teheran conference, where spheres of influence appear to have been allotted, it would seem that our foreign policy needs considerable doctoring. We are now slapping Britain on the wrist and failing to protest at all anything which Russia does. Both of these allies are apparently ignoring the famous Atlantic Charter, which had a lot to say about allowing European countries freedom to select their own form of government. I wish somebody would kindly name some foreign country which has, up to date, been given any freedom whatsoever. Certainly not India, Italy, Greece, Poland or Belgium; and there are others, too.

What, therefore, becomes of the FOURTH term argument that we need Mr. Roosevelt on account of our brilliant foreign policy? Fifth-term discussion is obviously premature.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, December 17, will be "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?"
The Golden Text, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. . . All things were made by Him; and without Him was not any thing made that was made." is from John 1:1,3. Other Bible citations include, "Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and My servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe Me, and understand that I am He: before Me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after Me. I even I, am the Lord; and beside Me there is no saviour" (Isaiah 43:10,11).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The universe reflects and expresses the divine substance or Mind; therefore God is seen only in the spiritual universe and spiritual man, as the sun is seen in the ray of light which goes out from it. God is revealed only in that which reflects Life, Truth, Love—yes, which manifests God's attributes and power, even as the human likeness thrown upon the mirror, repeats the color, form, and action of the person in front of the mirror." (p. 300).

This bank takes enormous satisfaction, for instance, in the knowledge that more homes in this area have been financed by us than by any other institution. For over 115 years we have been safeguarding the savings of the people of this community; helping them finance educational programs for their children; businesses for themselves, homes for their families. Whatever your particular dreams may be for the postwar years, won't you let us help you start planning now to make them come true? Advice and counsel from one of our officers will put you under no obligation.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Bill: Met an old friend on the bus today. I used to go to school with him.

Jane: Do I know him?

Bill: No—that was before I met you. We had quite a chat; he was telling me about his work at the plant—he's in a defense job.

Jane: It seems every one you meet on the buses these days works in a plant of some kind. How does he like what he's doing?

Bill: Okay, I guess—says it's the hours and irregular meals he hates.

Jane: Don't they have time out for lunch?

Bill: Yes, but there aren't many good places to eat around there. I guess all he does is stop for a sandwich and coffee.

Jane: Doesn't he carry a lunch from home? I should think he would need more than a sandwich and coffee to work on.

Bill: He has to leave early in the morning and his wife doesn't get around to fixing it, and besides a woman gets awful tired packing a lunch, same old thing all the time.

Jane: When you or Junior have to take a lunch I make sure you carry more than just a sandwich, if you can't buy something else to go with it.

Bill: But you can't put hot foods into a paper bag and that's what he really needs.

Jane: But there's nothing wrong with cold foods, Bill; they're just as good. I'll bet I can put up a cold lunch that you would like.

Hot foods aren't any more nourishing. How does this sound?

Egg salad sandwich
Ham and egg on rye
Milk
Apple sauce
Cup cake

Bill: Sounds okay, but I'll wager many wives don't bother with as much as that. It takes a lot of time.

Jane: Well, part of it could be prepared the night before and that would help. I think one of the handiest things to do is to have some spreads made up and kept in a covered dish in the ice box.

For variety in sandwich fillings try some of Jane's suggestions:

Cottage cheese with shredded carrots, raisins.
Chopped meat and raw cabbage with chili sauce and mayonnaise.
Peanut butter with chopped cooked bacon.
Baked beans with minced onion and pickle.
Ground Cheddar cheese with green pepper.

Small screw-top jars are good for stewed fruit, applesauce, pudding, salads, etc.

Cushing Hospital Observes Patients' Birthdays

They were tough hard-fighting soldiers on the battlefield, they stood the constant firing of enemy machine gun fire, trusted to fate in the foxholes, and were shelled and bombed incessantly. Through it all they were American soldiers, they were tough.

But when a frosted birthday cake, with pink lighted candles, mysterious birthday presents, punch, cigarettes, and cards—all atop a familiar gray table—are wheeled into the ward, where those American soldiers are, at Cushing General Hospital, Framingham, Mass., they are American boys again, for whom mothers have made birthday cakes.

Those mothers by proxy to many of the veterans at the hospital are familiarly known as Red Cross workers. From the Red Cross Center every day, trays loaded with happy birthday greetings are wheeled into the wards.

For some men, it is the first birthday party that has ever been given to them. Young or old, they appreciate it. Strains of "Happy Birthday" picked up all over the ward, and expressions of thanks and happiness tell the whole story.

Some days the birthday load is heavier than others. Miss Dorothy Cole of Wallaston, Mass., Red Cross Director of the Recreation Division, said, "Some days the birthday book will show that there are to be six or eight birthday parties on one day. Others will have just one, but there hasn't been one single day pass by without some soldier's birthday being celebrated."

To the women in Framingham, Natick, Needham, and Newton, are due thanks for the regular cake donations. In these communities, there are groups that donate these cakes regularly, one or more days a week. Flowers, cigarettes, and presents are frequently donated by the different groups.

If the Red Cross workers know the right age of the man who is having a birthday, they make sure that the right number of candles is on the cake.

Miss Cole stated that these birthday parties are a regular feature of the Red Cross Day, and that from the beginning of the Red Cross Unit here at the hospital, over 1000 parties have been given.

Women living in Newton, who wish to help with these Red Cross Birthday parties, should contact Mrs. Earl D. Warner of 19 Greylock road, West Newton, Mass.

N.H.S. Activities

In keeping with the current world-wide interest in looking ahead to a better post-war world, an Education Planning Committee has been working, since its appointment by Dr. Anderson last February, on the problem "What kind of schools should Newton look forward to after the war? This committee is considering all the probable effects the war may have on the philosophy and objectives of education, and on the materials, the methods, and the environment of instruction, learning, and growth. As a result of its studies the committee will submit to the School Committee proposals for curricular adjustments, for new personnel, for types of school environment and equipment which will ensure better education for Newton boys and girls. The Planning Committee has already issued to the teaching personnel of the city its first bulletin, "The Purposes of Education for the Post-war Period," for discussion and criticism, and others will follow shortly; so that the final recommendations made will represent the best thinking of all members of the city's teaching and administrative staff. ## S-Sgt. P. J. Leone Is Killed In Action

Word has been received that Staff Sgt. Pompei J. Leone, 23, of 60 Clinton street, Newton has been killed in action.

Surviving him are his mother, Mrs. Donata Petrucci of Walpole, three brothers, Pvt. Salvatore Leone, now in Belgium, Thomas Leone of Leominster and Tony Leone of Walpole, also by two sisters, Mrs. Lena Pellegrini of Newton and Mrs. Connie Dale of Walpole.

A pro-burial mass will be celebrated for Sgt. Leone in the Church of Our Lady, Newton on Saturday morning.

On the same date that Sgt. Leone was killed his boyhood chum, Tech. Sgt. Jerry Leone, 27, of 57 Cook street, Newton, married, and the father of an 18 months old son, Jerry Leone, Jr., was wounded in action, and is now in a hospital in England. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leone of 88 Chapel street, Newton. ## Postmaster Suggest Ways To Speed Mail

To expedite mail delivery and to prevent unnecessary double handling of letters patrons are advised to look carefully at the signs posted over slots and mail bags in the lobby of the Newton 58 post-office.

ONE sign reads Air Mail & Special Delivery Only but patrons continue to drop all classes of letters therein. The sign over another slot reads Newton Letters but papers and letters for the entire country are dropped into this slot which is provided so that local mail will be delivered on the next trip by local carriers, provided the public will cooperate and drop the Newton Corner mail into it. The slot reading Newspapers—Small Packages daily shows that air mail, special delivery and first class letters are carelessly dropped there in place of the correct class of mail which the sign calls for.

Many patrons in the city of Newton do not know the zone number of their own postoffice, many of them still thinking that mail for any part of the Garden City should be Newton 58. The truth is that Newton 58 is only for patrons of the Newton Corner section. Therefore, by using Newton 58 on letters addressed to streets in different parts of the city, patrons only delay their own mail, since the number system, if used properly by the public, speeds up delivery. Saturday evening and next week Monday to Saturday inclusive, the Newton Corner post-office will remain open until 7 p.m. for patrons.

During the week before Christmas a special sack will be placed in the lobby as has been done in the past years. This is solely for Newton Corner mail—Newton 58—to be exact, and it will be delivered by the carriers of the Newton 58 Branch. Patrons are cautioned not to deposit any mail into this sack except that for the Newton Corner section. The following numbers should be used on mail for the other local branches:

Auburndale	66
Chestnut Hill	67
Newton Center	59
Newton Highlands	61
Newton Lower Falls	62
Newton Upper Falls	64
Newtonville	60
Woburn	68
West Newton	65

The appointment of a new chairman for Nutrition, Mrs. John I. Heibek, is announced by Mr. Charles R. Cabot, Chairman of Newton Chapter of American Red Cross.

As former chairman of Nutrition Aides, Mrs. Heibek comes to her new assignment with a first hand knowledge of the importance of Nutrition work upon which the personnel of three volunteer Corps are dependent; for all members of the Nutrition Aides, Canteen and Dietitian Aide Corps must have a nutrition certificate before they can begin further training.

NEWTON In The Past

55 YEARS AGO
Newton Graphic, December 6, 1889

According to the election returns, 6 women voted in Ward One; 7 in Ward Two; 40 in Ward Three; 0 in Ward Four; 1 in Ward Five; 19 in Ward Six and 29 in Ward Seven.

It is suggested, in consideration of the large number absent from the public schools on account of whooping cough, that our afternoon session be held for the benefit of the whoopers. It is too bad that they should lose so many weeks of schooling when there are enough of them to fit a good sized school building.

Without much doubt the oldest house in the city of Newton is the Woodward house on Woodward street, Newton Centre, just before reaching Waban, occupied by Mr. S. N. Woodward and his sisters, the Misses Emily and Harriet Woodward. This house was erected in 1681.

Hubbard and Proctor have found the old corner drug store too small for their increasing business, and have leased the vacant store in the Lancaster block, Newton, next door to the Post Office, and expect to move in soon. The fittings have nearly been ready, and the store will have plate glass windows, a tiled floor, and be as handsome a drug store as can be found in any suburban city.

Mrs. Mary Tyler, the original heroine of the famous rhymes "Mary had a Little Lamb," died at Somerville on Tuesday, aged 83 years. Few poems have achieved such universal fame or been subjected to so many parodies.

The electric lights in the depot went out at the usual hour, Sunday evening, leaving the passengers in temporary darkness. The baggage master illuminated the waiting rooms by means of gas jets, and a large crowd waited patiently until nearly midnight for the arrival of the inward and outward accommodation trains, delayed on account of the entertainments given in Boston in aid of the families of the deceased Boston firemen.

50 YEARS AGO
Newton Graphic, December 7, 1894

A number of young people enjoyed the skating on Silver Lake last week. Thanksgiving Day the pond was crowded with a merry throng and happily no accidents occurred to mar the day's enjoyment.

Reports from all sections state that the Christmas trade is the best the storekeepers have had for years, and business seems to be picking up in all directions. Now is the time to advertise if you wish to get some of the profits.

There is a petition in circulation asking the city government to reopen the speeding ground on Watertown street, Newton. Last winter a quarter mile course on this street was reserved by the city for the drivers of fast horses, and while sleighing held this was one of the popular resorts for the owners of good snow horses in the vicinity of Newton. The board of aldermen decided that the privilege was not being rightly used, and put a stop to the pastime, and it is not very probable that it will be permitted again unless sufficient precautions are adopted to prevent accidents and to free the city from liability.

Hunnewell Hill residents are agitating the subject of a neighborhood clubhouse, where the men can meet of an evening, smoke, and have a social time. "Know what that smoke has meant to us the past three years?"

"It's meant jobs . . . security . . . more money in our pockets and a chance to save some of it."

"Not only for workers in the plants, but for me, my husband, the milkman, the girl who sells movie tickets . . . everybody in town."

"My biggest worry is that those chimneys might STOP smoking!"

★ ★ ★ ★

Will they stop?

Will you let the industry which has made life better for you drift away?

You know what will happen if you do—fewer jobs . . . thinner pay envelopes . . . maybe even no job.

You don't want that and neither do we.

Certainly America and the rest of the world will need many things after the shooting stops . . . things those plants can produce as they have produced the weapons of war.

We must keep our mills and factories . . . and keep them humming with peacetime production.

No one person or group can do this alone . . . you and your friends must help.

Help "sell" your community as a producer of goods.

Every one of us who shares in the fortunes of New England must take a hand—and that includes the New Haven Railroad.

It's a job for you local business men whose livelihood depends upon full employment . . . for you bankers, farmers, lawyers, doctors, school teachers, realtors, insurance agents, storekeepers, members of the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions and other service clubs.

It's a job for municipal officials and your representatives in the Legislatures who should keep property productive and taxes down.

It's a job for the clergyman who has the welfare of his flock at heart.

It's a job for the homeowner and his wife who want to protect their investment.

And it's very much a job for those most directly concerned—labor and management.

We of the New Haven believe in New England and in its industrial future.

No other part of America is more strategically located, has more manufacturing experience or as extensive a manufacturing establishment already in existence. No other section is nearer the great markets of the United States or has better rail, air and water facilities so vital to industry.

Among us—all of us—we can keep the chimneys smoking.

We will do our part.

Will you—in your own way—do yours?

Rotary Club

Roy S. Edwards was the guest speaker at the weekly meeting of the Newton Rotary Club held at the Brae Burn Country Club. Mr. Edwards was introduced by past president James B. Melcher.

The speaker reviewed the history of the Citizens Committee for Service to Newton Service Men which was instituted for years ago. He stated that a half million cigarettes had been shipped abroad by the committee during that time; Christmas and birthday cards had been mailed; send-offs arranged for each departing group of inductees, with a service kit for each man; "What's Cookin' in Newton" published and mailed to all servicemen semi-monthly through the joint efforts of the Newton Kiwanis Club and the Newton Rotary Club; that questionnaires had been sent Newton Servicemen relative to planning for the return of returning veterans after the war; that the Norumbega Council Boy Scouts were mailing over a thousand V-Mail Letters monthly to men overseas.

Mr. Edwards remarked that careful planning for the postwar period as it will affect the returning veteran is a matter of vital importance. He reviewed the plan for a "Post War Project for the City of Newton"—a threefold plan for a Veterans Building containing meeting hall, committee rooms, offices for organizations, library and social quarters; a Health Center for not only the returning veteran but also the future generations of the community; and third, a suitable auditorium for community gatherings.

The speaker pointed out the significance of a recent Gallup Poll made among Canadian Men of the Armed Branches, wherein the question "What kind of a Memorial will be desirable for the returning veteran?" was answered unanimously, "A Living Memorial". Mr. Edwards pointed out that the suggested Post War Plan for Newton is truly a Living Memorial.

Lion's Club

Edward Harper, a member of the Newton Lions Club spoke at the last meeting of the Club on the subject of X-Rays. He is the District Manager of the Kelley-Koett Manufacturing Co., one of the oldest and largest manufacturers of X-Ray equipment. Not only did the speaker tell of the history and early beginnings of the X-Ray which was discovered by Count Wilhelm Konrad von Roentgen, but he also told of the important use of X-Rays in the industrial world, especially in the war industries where precision of parts is useless if the component materials are not flawless; it is here that the X-Ray is invaluable and in a great measure responsible for the high quality of our war machines which are the pride and envy of the world.

In speaking of the therapeutic value of the X-Ray in the treatment of disease, notably cancer, Lion Harper urged the Lions to get back of the Fight Cancer movement, and to also support the fight against tuberculosis which is curable in its early stages, and which is capable of being discovered at its inception through the use of the fluoroscope and X-Ray pictures. Telling of Louis Testone and Charlie Monahan who have been working hard to make the evening a success.

It was also reported that the sale of tickets for donations to a War Bond Drawing for the benefit of the Sea Scouts is very encouraging, it being very gratifying to see the way in which the public is contributing.

Speaking of the world of tomorrow, Mr. Andrews said, "We are living in a world of more rapid social and economic changes than any of our generation have ever known. Some of the changes of doubt may be due to the rapid change of our country from the purely agricultural type of economy of yesterday to our vast industrial economy of today." He concluded by saying no man can foretell what the future holds for the average American citizen and his family. Every one of us believes in America and we believe in the ultimate destiny of our country." Mr. Andrews was introduced to his Boston audience by Montague P. ## Christmas Season Opens at the Music School

In spite of the down pour, a large company of parents and friends came out on last Friday evening to join in singing familiar carols at the Annual Christmas Concert of the All Newton Music School in which a hundred children took part.

The Hallelujah Chorus from the "Messiah" played by the senior orchestra of the Music school and conducted by Mary Scipione opened the program. Following this, Irene Forte led the audience in "Silent Night," "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "Joy to the World."

An outstanding feature of the program were the carols played by clarinets and flutes, the wind instruments being especially effective in "Torches Bring Jeanette Isabella," "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," "What Child is This" and "Away in a Manger," the last one played as a flute solo by Bradford Able.

In the second part of the program, choral groups numbering over fifty boys and girls from the Pomroy House, West Newton Community Centre, and the Theory classes of the Music School, formed a procession to "O Come All Ye Faithful" followed by carols sung in clear voices by the children alone. A recessional to "Gloria" brought the concert to a close. Throughout the evening, the accompaniment to the carol singing was furnished by the Music School orchestras, in which there were four groups comprised of forty pieces in all.

Each year, this concert opens the Christmas season at the All Newton Music School and has become a traditional community event. During the week of December 11, the last week before the Christmas recess, there will be nine party recitals at which one hundred and fifty pupils all under Junior High School age will take part, playing for each other and joining in the various music groups. Each pupil will be given a small Christmas bag of candy to take home. The Music School will close for the Christmas vacation on Saturday, December 16 and will reopen for regular sessions on Tuesday, January 2, 1945.

15TH AAF IN ITALY—Cpl.

William F. Timmins, 26, son of

Mr. and Mrs. James Timmins, 258

California street, Newton, a mechanic assigned to maintenance to a B-24 Liberator bomber in a heavy bombardment group based in Southern Italy, has chalked up

15 months service overseas.

His veteran group, one of the oldest in the Mediterranean area, came into Italy from Africa a year ago, shortly after the fall of Foggia and Naples to Allied army. The group's advance into

Italy was part of the Allied overall strategy in Europe to launch vigorous, sustained attacks on the heart of Hitler's European fortress from the South, as well as from the West.

Thus this bomber group became a component part of the 15th AAF

which a year ago emerged in Italy

as a powerful striking force against the Nazi war machine.

During the past 12 months, this particular Liberator group flew

168 combat missions from its base in southern Italy, dropping 9064 tons of explosives on targets in southern and central Europe. The group has well over 300 mis-

U. S. Secret Service Warns of Check Thief And Forger

Check thieves and check forgers will do their Christmas shopping with stolen and forged checks if merchants and housewives aren't particularly careful, according to Frank J. Wilson, Chief of the U. S. Secret Service, Treasury Department.

"The government mails out nearly one million checks every day," says Chief Wilson, "and about eight million go each month to dependents of men in the armed forces. Check thieves steal as many as they can from hall and porch mail boxes. They forge the endorsements and victimize retailers who are so anxious to make sales that they fail to consider the losses they may suffer through carelessness."

The Secret Service offers some simple precautions to help fight the forgery racket. "If you receive checks by mail, be at home or have a member of your family at home to receive the checks when they are due. Then they can't be stolen from your mail box."

If you are a retailer or cashier, don't cash checks for strangers without proper identification. Know your endorsers! Before cashing any check, ask yourself this question: "If this check is returned as a forgery, can I locate the forger and recover my loss?"

It is not a holiday for the check forger," Chief Wilson said. "He's on the job every minute, always looking for merchants he can fool. The only way to beat him is to beat him to the punch. Know your endorsers . . . require identification!"

TABRIZ
Rugs from Tabriz are the true reflection of the Persian's art and culture. Tabriz is a city that has enjoyed peace and prosperity and has endured conquest and tyranny. Its past culture and colorful history have immensely influenced its people's weaving. The people of Tabriz, unlike their bold nomadic cousins of the North, are cultured and philosophical. Their art in weaving is to express subtle effects. Their realfellow colors, jewel-like medallions are reflections of the people's taste.
In the past as in the present rugs from Tabriz have adorned the homes of the most critical people of good taste all over the globe. It is a rare opportunity to find such rugs as these today.
Recently in New York I came upon several bales of Persian Rugs that were woven and shipped direct from Tabriz. I carefully selected and now have in my shop what I believe are the best Tabriz rugs available for your inspection.
What a Christmas gift such a true gem would make!

Entitled

Christian Science: The Science of Unfolding Being

by Herschel P. Nunn, C.S.B.
of Portland, Oregon
Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts

A lecture of unusual interest and enlightenment was delivered on Thursday evening, December 7, at First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Newton by Herschel P. Nunn, C.S.B., of Portland, Oregon, whose subject was—Christian Science: The Science of Unfolding Being. The lecturer was introduced by Mrs. Helen L. Leighton, Second Reader, who said—

My Friends: Do you remember that lovely story of the shepherds watching their flocks by night on the wintry hillsides of Judea, and how they heard music in the skies, and the voice of an angel saying, "Fear not; behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord." (Luke 2:10-11)

In this way the Christ came to human consciousness nearly two thousand years ago; and now this Christ-Truth, which has really never left us, is being heralded again in this age, to those who are willing to listen. This truth is explained in Christian Science, and a Christian Science lecture is one of the ways in which the message is given. We have gathered here to listen to this message; and as one of our Hymns so beautifully expresses it,

"Where meekness will receive him, still

The dear Christ enters in."

The dear Christ enters in. Every authorized Christian Science lecturer is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. Our lecturer has chosen for his subject, "Christian Science: The Science of Unfolding Being." It is my privilege to bid you welcome, and to present Mr. Herschel P. Nunn, of Portland, Oregon.

The lecturer spoke substantially as follows:

What is a Miracle?

A Christian Science practitioner in one of our large cities found a man waiting for him in his reception room. He at once recognized his visitor as a prominent and unusually well-informed citizen. The man said, "I don't know why I am here, but I have been driven to desperation. The doctors can do nothing for me, so here I am. But I want you to understand that I don't believe in God, and I don't believe in miracles."

"All right," said the practitioner, "I don't believe in miracles as miraculous events either. Come into my office and let's talk it over. Tell me how you would define a miracle."

Without hesitation the man replied, "Why, a miracle is a setting aside of law, and I don't believe that law can be set aside."

"Fine," said the practitioner. "That's my definition of a miracle, too. Now will you answer another question for me? Do you think this universe is governed by a basic, fundamental, any-thing, except harmony, or by a law of inharmoniousness, or by a law of inharmony and discord?"

After some thought, in which his knowledge of astronomy played an important part, the man replied, "Why, it must be fundamentally a law of harmony or else our universe would be in chaos."

"That is just what I expected you to say," said the practitioner, "and you have healed yourself. You can see that if the law of the universe is a law of harmony you set aside the law when you believe you are expressing anything except harmony. According to your definition of a miracle it would be miraculous for you to be sick, and natural for you to be well."

Gradually a smile broke over the man's face, and he walked out of the office a well man.

Healing in Christian Science is based upon the realization that the universe is fundamentally a good universe because it is the creation or expression of a good God, of the one infinite, divine Principle, of the one spiritual, perfect Principle.

In her work, "Rudimentary Divine Science," Mary Baker Eddy, the revered Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, asks the question (p. 1), "What is the Principle of Christian Science?" She answers, "It is God, the Supreme Being, finite and immortal Mind, the Soul of man and the universe. It is our Father which is in heaven. It is substance, Spirit, Life, Truth, and Love—these are the divine Principle." The divine Principle, God, is the basis of all being. Since this Principle is substance, its creation must be an expression of eternal, divine, unvarying, undecaying substance, which Christian Science declares is the only reality of being. Since this Principle is Spirit, its creation must be, and is, spiritual, perfect, harmonious. Since this Principle is Life, its creation must be ever-living, ever-active, forever expressive of infinite being, infinite good. Since this Principle is Truth, its creation must be and is devoid of evil, of falsehood, of error's every claim to pleasure or pain in matter. Since this Principle is divine Love, its creation is the evidence or expression of abundance, of that which bestows, inspires, establishes as permanent good.

In John's account of the true or real creation as given in the first chapter of his Gospel, he says, "All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made." When sin and disease are seen as having no basis in the divine Principle, Life, Truth, Love, they are seen as wholly devoid of reality. Thus they begin to fade from human consciousness and we experience healing.

Our friend in the practitioner's office glimpsed this fundamental fact when he saw he had been defiling miracle from the wrong premise. Now he saw something of the truth expressed in these words by Mrs. Eddy in her textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 134), "A miracle fulfills God's law, but does not violate that law. This fact at present seems more mysterious than the miracle itself." She further adds, "The miracle introduces no disorder, but unfolds the primal order, establishing the Science of God's unchangeable law."

When we constantly insist upon recognizing man and the universe from this standpoint of the fundamental goodness of all things, as Christian Science teaches us to do, we inevitably find good more natural than evil, we accept it as the normal state to be enjoyed in our daily experience, in accord with God's law of perpetual harmony.

The New Creation
When creation is viewed from the spiritual standpoint our entire conception of the universe and of being is made new. In all our reasoning in Christian Science we begin with the one divine Mind. We acknowledge God as All-in-all, as the divine Principle, the one infinite cause or creator, the center of our being, the circumference of it, the Soul of it, the substance of it, the basis of it, not this a revelation instead of a creation?"

Certainly it is revelation, the appearing of that which is and was and always will be. This dawning consciousness of Truth, "spiritually clearer views of Him," this appearing of Spirit, awakening us from the dream of life in matter to the spiritual actuality of life in God, is Christ's coming to dispel the illusion of life and intelligence as existent in matter.

This first day of creation, or revelation, must come to every one of us, for the darkness of error cannot forever veil the fact of the spiritual perfection of all real being. The "veil is done away in Christ." When this revelation appeared to Mrs. Eddy, it not only raised her from what was believed to be her death-bed, but brought with it such a flood of the light of divine Mind that the rest of her life was devoted to bringing to mankind a knowledge of the truth of being as she has presented it in Christian Science. What a glorious day for humanity that was—the beginning of its spiritual awakening and release from the bondage of age-old beliefs in sin and its supposed power, sickness and its supposed reality, death and its supposed inevitability! It was through her illumined understanding of the Bible that she found this message erred together onto one place, and let the dry land appear; and it was so." Mrs. Eddy says of this (Science and Health, p. 507), "In metaphor, the dry land illustrates the absolute formations instituted by Mind, while matter symbolizes the elements of Mind." Thus what God is, is expressed in relation to what God does. God, divine Mind, manifests itself, expresses itself, as man, the divine image and likeness. Thus is clearly presented the fact that man is not God, and God is not man. This presentation of the perfect man is one of the offices of the Christ.

"Let the dry land appear." Let what God does reveal what God is. This revelation is the coming of the Christ; it is Christ's appearing, the first through Christ Jesus and his words and works, then through Mary Baker Eddy and her discovery, Christian Science. Since "the Christ is without beginning of years or end of days" (Science and Health, p. 333) it appeared to the patriarchs, Abraham, Jacob, Moses, and to many of the prophets, anointing them with the divine nature to such a degree that they prophetically saw the appearing of the fuller revelation in the coming of Jesus the Christ, as the Messiah or anointed one. A beautiful explanation of this is found in Mrs. Eddy's

In the study of this discovery we come to know that "day" is not a period of time but that it is "the irradiance of Life" (Science and Health, p. 584) as our textbook defines it. This ever shining forth of the light of Truth is the endless day of God's appearing, not measured by time but, to continue with the definition, by "the good that is unfolded."

To know the truth about "day" is a step of great import in human progress, a step in grasping the Science of Being. Let our first waking thought in the morning be one of realization that this day is not a period of time, but of unfolding of good. It is governed by divine Mind—every event in it. Let us know that this is God's day, not mortal mind's; a day of revelation, of spiritual awakening, of glorious accomplishment. Nothing can enter into it that "defileth," or maketh a lie. It is established "in the secret place of the most high" and there abides—protected, fruitful, blessed, harmonious.

According to the account of Genesis, creation appeared in seven days. Each of these days presents new views of being. They reveal the unfolding steps in the understanding and recognition of all true being and in the comprehension of prayer. As we proceed today, you will note that each day in its unfolding presents another phase of prayer—the unfolding of this ascending consciousness of being.

Second Day: The Day of the Firmament—Understanding
On the second day, or second step in spiritual progress, appears the firmament of spiritual understanding. "And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters." Our Leader says of this spiritual understanding (Science and Health, p. 508), "Understanding is the line of demarcation between the real and unreal. Spiritual understanding unfolds Mind—Life, Truth, and Love—and demonstrates the divine sense, giving the spiritual proof of the universe in Christian Science."

Mrs. Eddy shows the mission of Christian Science, the second coming of Christ, in its clear presentation that Mind's unfolding of its own being, Life, Truth, Love, is what draws the line between the real and the unreal.

Third Day: The Christ Appearing
After the firmament of spiritual understanding or the light of revelation has been unfolded, the Christ is free to unfold, to rise and ascend. Our individual spiritual consciousness advances, increases, abounds. This state "is an important one to the human thought, letting in the light of spiritual understanding," says Mrs. Eddy (Science and Health, p. 508, 509). And she adds, "This 'dawning' corresponds to the resurrection, when Spirit is discerned to be the Life of all, . . . dependent upon no material organization." This is the third day, the third step in spiritual progress, the growth of the Christ, the resurrection that takes hold of eternal Truth. This is the coming to each one of us of the Christ.

On the third day "God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, and seed is in itself, upon the earth." The seed within itself—this is the mandate of immortality, of a forever growing, unfolding, ascending creation. This is the law of resurrection, the law that says there is no death. Every little sprig that lifts itself above the belief of life in matter, above the belief of life in the law of God, is resurrection, or spiritual fruitage.

Jesus' life among men was evidence of continuing resurrection, the true idea of freedom. He accepted no other but spiritual consciousness. He proved that God was his Mind; Soul his only sense; being Spirit his substance. Through his daily, hourly resurrection from the tomb of mortal beliefs, he gave evidence of his own at-one-ment with divine Principle, and out of the fullness of his resurrection he taught others how to prove theirs.

A difficult experience that seems afflictive and crushing to one will inspire another to lift his thought above the belief of life in matter and achieve victory. Why is this? Is it not because to one the experience is accepted as a crucifixion, while to the other it is a resurrection? We learn in Christian Science that resurrection is awakening to a more spiritual sense of life, a yielding of the material sense to the spiritual, of the flesh to the spirit. This occurs in every demonstration of Christian Science, and resurrection becomes the inevitable law of existence. Thus every human sense of crucifixion becomes merely a challenge to reach higher levels of spiritual achievement, because no matter what the testimony of the senses may suggest to the contrary, only the spiritual is real—only the spiritual, the real, is actually going on.

Christian Scientists unite in their church organizations to give evidence of the great resurrection that is taking place in human consciousness. At their Wednesday evening meetings speaker after speaker rises from his seat to give grateful testimony to a resurrection that has placed in his human experience, very often after you have heard an account of remarkable healing of some physical difficulty you will hear the speaker say something to this effect: "Though I am unexpressing grateful for the physical healing I am more grateful still for the spiritual awakening, the new love and appreciation for the Bible that has come into my life." You also hear an expression of heartfelt gratitude for the life and work of our noble Leader, Mary Baker Eddy, her great work for the salvation of mankind, and for her textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures."

Fourth Day: Uplifting Thoughts of Spiritual Enlightenment

The fourth step in progress is the day of spiritual enlightenment, when God says, "Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth." This is the day of unfolding understanding in prayer, when spiritual consciousness expands and marvelous revelations come to us. This is the day when divine Science, typified in the Revelation of St. John as "a woman clothed with the sun," illumines the consciousness of each worker in Science with spiritual light and power. The spiritual sense of Christian Scientists shines like stars in the firmament of heaven. Their spiritual healing becomes spontaneous, the unlabored action of Love "reflected in love," as our textbook puts it (p. 17).

In this day of spiritual enlightenment men are enlightened of God and Spirit. It is the Pentecostal day when, moved by the same Spirit, men meet "with one accord, in one place," in spiritual consciousness; the "day" when nations will have one Mind, one purpose, and shall dwell in peace and love.

And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night; he made the stars also. "In the darkness or twilight of uncertainty the lesser light of the questioner's prayer, typified in the darkness or twilight of our uncertainty until in the warmth and glow of understanding our daytime of illumined consciousness is lighted by the greater light of the prayer which confidently affirms the aliveness of God, the reality of being revealed in Christian Science."

Let the prayer of ascending consciousness of God be to you a new vision of the first chapter of Genesis. Let a new sense of creation appear, the revelation of reality, the kingdom of heaven, here.

True prayer is such an intimate consciousness of man's at-one-ment or oneness with the Father that the experience which we describe as turning to God in prayer quickly becomes a conscious, living, and powerful, an illumination of thought so complete, so precious, so assuring, that notions of any other power, any other law, any other being, vanish before it.

Undeniable qualities of character are uncovered, rooted out and healed through such prayer. I heard a teacher in one of our well-known schools tell of such a healing accompanied by a convincing physical healing of a growth on the neck of a child. He said that the growth had appeared at a time when she had been deeply hurt by circumstances which, as she put it "had gotten under my skin." She realized that the hurt was due to her hypersensitivity. She said that in her mental work she realized that as a child of God she could be sensitive only to the good which He gave, and that in reality there was only this spiritual good to which to be sensitive. She was healed of the growth at the root and came out of the foot, never to return.

Fifth Day: The Day of Aspiration
What is the next step in prayer in our individual, spiritual progress, in recognition of true selfhood, the fifth day in the first chapter of Genesis? Ascending thought, leaving earth for heaven, illumined with lights, forsaking matter for Spirit, rises into spiritual attitudes, and reaches the day of aspiration, the fifth step in the progressive appearing of creation.

Aspirations are typified in Genesis 1:20 as the fowls, which fly above "the earth in the open firmament" (spiritual understanding) of heaven. These aspirations soar above and beyond all corporeality; they reveal the fact that our true and only selfhood is separated from mortal mind perversions. They not only partake of the nature of God, but appear as, God's thoughts. Every hungering desire, aspiring to Truth, is supported and protected by God's thoughts, the lights in the firmament. Heavenly aspirations open the door of consciousness, and let in the beautiful and good. True aspiration reflects divine power.

The life of an active Christian Scientist is not one of ease in matter, but of spiritualizing thought and exercising God-given dominion. Our Christian Science churches are made up, for the most part, of men and women joyously working together in unity for our services, our Sunday schools, our testimony meetings. Their problems of organization are being worked out from the standpoint of demonstration of the activity of the one divine Mind, instead of through personal political manipulation. This experience makes them better citizens through the actual practice of democracy.

Mary Baker Eddy's definition of church in the Glossary of her textbook is well known to Christian Scientists. It is the basis of their prayer and their work for their church. The first part of this definition presents the spiritual idea of Church, the divine fact, of which the second part of the definition is the human concept, its expression in human experience. The first part reads (Science and Health, p. 583), "Church: The structure of Truth and Love; whatever rests upon and proceeds from Love. . . ."

This great statement expresses the infinite reality of what church really is, a spiritually mental activity of the one divine Principle, God. Nothing human or mortal can assail it nor interfere with the expression of its holy purpose. It is as inviolable as the Christ, for it is the evidence of the Christ.

The second part of this definition is: "The Church is that institution, which affords proof of its utility and power, by elevating and arousing the dormant understanding from material beliefs to the apprehension of spiritual ideas and the demonstration of divine Science, thereby casting out devils, or error, and healing the sick." This is the church, the church that we see as there are seven "days" in the Genesis unfolding of creation. You will note the first step requires that the institution afford "proof of its utility" second it "is found elevating and arousing the dormant understanding from material beliefs," fourth, "this roused understanding unfolds 'to the apprehension of spiritual ideas,' which leads to the fifth step, 'the demonstration of divine Science,' evidenced in the sixth and seventh steps of 'casting out devils, or error, and healing the sick.'"

Only as healing appears in a community does the Christian Science church appear. The Church of Christ, Scientist, is unique in this respect; only after there has been healing and reformation of many individuals in a community is a branch church of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, The Mother Church, organized.

The aspiration of the Christian Scientist's thought soaring in the firmament of understanding, to take these steps in his own experience, to express them in his thought and expression of Church, is measured by the clearness of his realization of Church, the true Church, the spiritual idea, "the structure of Truth and Love."

"And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply." The prosperity of our churches depends upon the spiritual animus of our thought of them, and our work for them.

When hearts are chastened and pride rebuked, there comes a genuine aspiration for more of Christ's appearing. When we turn away from material things, we cast our net on the side of Spirit. In true aspiration the human is surrendered for the divine. True aspiration leads to the demonstration of the Science of Christianity in church and in individual life.

In our church work, in our homes do we love enough to cherish and encourage the birth of spiritual aspiration in our neighbor, in our loved ones, in those whom we may be helping in their Science? Let us realize the need to their materialism to satisfy their material and mortal self-aggrandizement, their worldly ambition for place, power, popularity. Then let us, like Paul, and like our beloved Leader, eagerly tend and nourish spiritual aspiration in the hearts of their new birth in Spirit, bring to them the lessons of the first chapter of Genesis. Then their ideas, spiritual sense, fly on spiritual wings in heaven, the kingdom of the real.

Sixth Day: The Climax of Creation

The sixth day represents the climax or fullness of creation. Aspiration united with demonstration lifts consciousness into the spiritual sense of being where Love is enthroned. The sixth day of unfolding presents man in God's image, the full representation of the conscious identity of being, and man reflecting God's intelligence.

This is the fully matured, complete, spiritualized consciousness, which is man's true or real selfhood. Today not only the peace of nations, but the protection of our own nation, of our homes, of our church, depends to some degree upon the individual right knowing of every Christian Scientist. How shall the Christ, Truth, be demonstrated unless by those who have a demonstrable understanding of Truth which heals the ills and sins of mankind.

Our men and women in the armed services have proved to a wonderful degree that this healing prayer of Christian Science brings deliverance. A Christian Science War-time Minister remarked to me recently, "When these boys call upon me for treatment in Christian Science they do not say, 'Will you please heal me?' They say, 'I would say that nine times out of ten they are healed in one treatment.'"

The basis for all demonstration of Christian Science in our human experience is prayer or treatment—the actual, workable understanding of God and of man's oneness with Him. Now, Christian Science treatment should be as spontaneous as light. Spontaneity is characteristic of spiritual things. Treatment is not something you do to a person or to a church; it is something perfect you know about that which is already done, about that which is ready to be in Christian Science is based upon the fact of spiritual perfection. It is based on the premise that everything is already created. Everything is, and because it is, and is perfect, the practitioner acknowledges the liberating truth. Mrs. Eddy has said that (Unity of Good, p. 7) "an acknowledgment of the perfection of the infinite Unseen confers a power nothing else can." This acknowledgment excludes from thought everything but the simple fact of perfect being. Let spiritual consciousness be. Our work becomes more and more unlabored as we argue less and acknowledge more.

How shall we find our true selfhood as God's idea unless we claim it, appropriate it? Can we aspire to Godlikeness and at the same time hold to fictitious beliefs that are unlike God? Now is the only accepted time in Christian Science. Now is the time to claim the right to be responsive and receptive to God's thoughts, God's ideas, because actually we are the expression, the evidence, the manifestation of these ideas. Let us claim divine Mind's ability, its power, its purity, its joy, its spiritual expansiveness, as our own and our only true consciousness. Then the mystery of so-called mortal life will yield to revelation; confusion will yield to scientific understanding; and the abominations of mortal belief will give way to the spiritual, perfect idea of universal Love.

Seventh Day: The Completeness of Being Realized
"And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made." As the material concept of earth and heaven disappear, all things become new. In this spiritualized consciousness, we find salvation, the new heaven, the new earth, "Life, Truth, and Love understood and demonstrated as supreme over all; sin, sickness, and death destroyed" (Science and Health, p. 589).

Bound by earth weights, one cannot experience salvation, cannot rise into spiritual consciousness. What constitutes our earth weights? Remembering the things that are behind, Paul tells us to forget them. The desire for Truth already within us aspires to all Truth, and might rise into its native atmosphere naturally but for the accumulated beliefs called a mortal past. These beliefs seem to bind us to earth much as a captive balloon is held by ropes. But we realize that we lose nothing by forgetting a mortal past—an unreality—its sorrows, its mistakes, its grievances, its sins, its resentments, we have cut the ropes and are free. "All the good the past hath had remains to make our own time glad," one of our hymns reads. All that ever really happened was that which was known of God. Then let us cut loose from earth weights and obey the call of Science! As our textbook says (p. 578), "Arise from your false consciousness into the true sense of Love, and behold the Lamb's wife, —Love wedded to its own spiritual idea." In other words, let us behold our oneness with the Father, our true identity as the son of God. Let us see ourselves as the new man. Let the spiritual sense of life and being encompass thought. Rest in action. Be actively loving. Love is life. Christian Science teaches that the Sabbath day of rest is ceaseless unfolding of truth, the new heaven, the new earth.

The seven days of creation are seven periods of spiritual unfolding, in ascending consciousness. Through this unfolding the reality of creation appears. We recognize the universe of God's creating, "the new heaven, and the new earth," in which wars and rumors of war have no place. Just as the spiritual recognition in Christian Science of perfect man heals beliefs of sickness which mortal mind attaches to mortal man, so the realization of the revelation, of the spiritual universe, heals the beliefs of war and carnage which this mortal mind attaches to the material world. In the divine universe matter is unknown. In this one divine mind, the new heaven, the new earth, when we place our loved ones there, and see them as divine ideas, we no longer think of them as subject to war or the effects of war, but as spiritual, perfect, harmonious, complete expression of the one divine Mind, forever reflecting the qualities of this Mind in health, purity, peace, spiritual perception, happiness.

Through "spiritually clearer views of Him," of God, our prayer, our demonstration, our daily lives are lifted above material sense into the apprehension of spiritual, divine ideas, that Christ-consciousness which heals and blesses all mankind.

Disabled Vets To Receive Gift Packages
For the 23rd consecutive year disabled veterans of World War I and disabled servicemen of the present war will receive Christmas gift packages from the Disabled Veterans Christmas Remembrance Committee, it was announced today by Gen. Daniel Needham of Newton, chairman of the committee. Gen. Needham in his announcement appealed for contributions from people in all the cities and towns of the state.

The Disabled Veterans Christmas Remembrance Committee is a pioneer in the work of remembering veterans with gifts at Christmas time. For 22 years it has remembered the veterans of World War I and for the third year, now it will send gifts to the disabled men of the present war.

Gifts are sent to the disabled confined to all hospitals in Massachusetts, and to all Massachusetts disabled men in hospitals.

The number of men wounded in the present war during the past year has added greatly to the list of disabled to whom gifts will be sent and the committee has appealed for increased contributions this year in order that none may be forgotten.

Since the gifts are sent to men from all parts of the state and hospitals throughout the state the committee is making a state wide appeal for contributions. These may be sent to Allan Forbes, Treasurer, State Street Trust Company, State Street, Boston.

Lt. Day Completes His 50th Mission

15TH AAF IN ITALY—First Lieutenant Emerson Day, 23 Sylvan road, Waban, Mass., has recently flown his 50th combat mission as a navigator in a 15th Air Force Flying Fortress Squadron operating from an advanced base in Italy. In flying on aerial attacks to most of the European enemy countries, Lt. Day has come in for more than his share of exciting memories.

On July 26, on an attack on Vienna, Austria, Lt. Day's ship was struck by flak. The No. 2 engine was put out of commission, and the Nos. 3 and 4 engines, in fact, were damaged.

They came back from the target through enemy skies unscathed, with their ship laboring badly. The men in the ship were forced to throw out guns, ammunition and all extraneous matter to lighten the load.

When Lt. Day's ship participated in an attack on Munich, Germany, on September 12th, it was again struck by flak over the target. Part of the wing was blown away. Had the flak been a few more inches forward, it would have struck the fuel tank, and the ship would have been no more. Again, his ship was forced to leave

William McKenzie Dies Suddenly

William McKenzie, 57, proprietor of McKenzie's Newton & Boston Express, died on Thursday, December 14, at his home, 25 Bemis road, Newtonville, of a heart ailment.

Mr. McKenzie was born in Hyde Park, Mass., the son of John and Annie (Vitch) McKenzie. He spent his youth in Brookline, moving to Newtonville 20 years ago.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jessie M. McKenzie, a son, William McKenzie, Jr., four brothers, George, John J., and Robert of Hingham, and Alexander of Quincy, and three sisters, Mrs. Bethia Greenhalgh of Uxbridge, Mrs. Jennie McLaughlin of Roxbury and Mrs. Ann Vickery of Quincy.

His son, T. S. William McKenzie, Jr., of the U. S. Army Transportation Corps was called home and was with his father when he died. He has been in the Army since June 1943 and wears campaign ribbons of the American Theatre, the European Theatre, the Bronze Star for the invasion of Southern France and the Good Conduct ribbon.

Like so many fathers, Mr. McKenzie gave his son a thorough training in the conduct of the business hoping that it might be carried on by him, and as soon as the war can be won, William Jr. expects to pick up where his father left off.

The McKenzie Express fleet of red trucks has long been a familiar sight on the streets of Newton. They have specialized in carrying the needs of Newton merchants between here and Boston, and since the war started a very large part of the work has been the hauling of heavy machinery and goods for essential war plants.

Temporary arrangements have been made to maintain the usual McKenzie service and every effort will be made to keep this successful business of 20 years going.

The critical war needs of this area means that every available truck should be kept going," states William McKenzie, Jr. "You can count on us to do our share."

Mr. McKenzie was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose 1232 of Allston, brother members of which as well as many friends and business associates called at the home to express their sympathy.

Funeral services were held from the home on Saturday morning, a solemn mass of requiem was celebrated in the Church of Our Lady, Newton, at 10 o'clock by Rev. James E. Fahey, assisted by Rev. Russell T. Haley, deacon and Rev. Arthur I. Norton, subdeacon.

Miss Florence Herlihy was the organist and Harold Carney sang "Veni Jesu" and "O Mercurius Pastoris." Michael Ahern sang "Softly and Tenderly" at the recessional.

The pallbearers were Orville O. Clapper, John McLaughlin, Fred Ryan, Edward Shannon, Edward Grant and Hazen E. Edgar. Delegations were present from the General Express office in Boston and the Allston Lodge of Moose. Burial was in Holyhood Cemetery, Brookline, with prayers by Fr. Fahey.

Aldermen Enact Changes In Traffic Laws

The following new Traffic Laws have been adopted by the Newton Board of Aldermen:

An amendment to the traffic regulations requiring that cars be parked parallel to the curb on Centre street, near Centre avenue, Newton, in front of the Hubbard Pharmacy.

Heretofore diagonal parking of cars was permitted at the location, but the Fire Department complained that the congestion made it difficult to drive fire apparatus around the corner from Centre avenue to Centre street. The change covers only the length of one car.

The board also enacted an amendment prohibiting parking on the west side of Chapel street, from the Raytheon property to the property of the Futurity Thread Company, including the space in front of the latter.

A third measure adopted is a regulation providing for "STOP" signs at the following locations: Arlington street at Park street, traffic to stop on Arlington street going westerly before entering "ark street."

Arlington street at Waverley avenue, traffic to stop on Arlington street easterly before entering Waverley avenue.

The street traffic committee recommended the changes after holding hearings on it last Wednesday evening.

The board also granted the request of the State Department of Public Works for an amendment to the through way ordinance eliminating the requirement that autos stop on Commonwealth avenue before entering Washington street. The regulation requiring cars to stop on Washington street before entering Commonwealth avenue remains in effect, so that Commonwealth avenue remains a through way.

Topping of Quota Can Be Seen By January 1st

Sale of War Bonds to individuals in Newton has reached $2,490,000 with many more sales to be tabulated and reported, Mr. James B. Meleher, Newton Chairman, reported yesterday. The quota of $3,151,000 for individual sales should be passed by January 1st.

According to the Newton Committee, the total sales of all types of War Bonds during the Sixth War Loan Drive has reached $14,672,000. This is $6,949,000 above the original quota of $7,723,000. Although the Drive officially closed December 16th, all sales of the Savings Bonds Series E, F, and G until January 1st will be credited to the campaign.

The pallbearers were Orville O. Clapper, John McLaughlin, Fred Ryan, Edward Shannon, Edward Grant and Hazen E. Edgar. Delegations were present from the General Express office in Boston and the Allston Lodge of Moose. Burial was in Holyhood Cemetery, Brookline, with prayers by Fr. Fahey.

We'll Miss Him At Christmas

By LELAND BICKFORD

Former South Pacific Combat Correspondent

There'll be a vacancy this year
Around the Christmas tree,
And many fellows won't be there
That always used to be.
The holly isn't quite as green,
The berries quite as bright,
As those we had in other years
At home, each Christmas night.

For out somewhere across the world,
That boy who trimmed the tree
Is facing death this Christmas night,
That all men may be free.
His Noel is the cannon's roar,
His light, the star-shells glare
This Christmas he stands bathed in blood,
With dying everywhere.

The tree'll be there as always
In its old familiar place,
But everywhere we look, we'll see
Through tears, that missing face.
And as the candle lights burn low
Our wealth of Christmas cheer,
Will go in prayers for him, our boy
Who won't be here this year.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

Merry Christmas

Each year at this time, either in this paper or in one published in a nearby community, I take a little time out from the discussion of purely political matters and make a modest attempt to get down to some of the fundamentals underlying our efforts to work and play together.

First, however, let us take a long look ahead and see what is likely to happen in the political arena during the coming decade.
I think that those who follow politics most closely will agree that quite a few sweeping changes will occur. For one thing, the old, familiar party alignments are due for a possible re-shuffling. It may be that the names of our two major parties will remain the same; inside these two parties, however, the situation will be somewhat different. Many independents may decide to throw their lot with either the Republican or the Democratic party.
Furthermore, many Republicans, including present members of our armed forces may decide to change allegiance. Conversely, many other servicemen may decide to join G.O.P. comes closer to meeting their political requirements than the Democratic party.

I am not overlooking the possibility that a third party will be formed. This may displace one of our current parties or it may struggle along uncertainly for a period, after which it may absorb one of the present organizations.
My readers may recall that Rep.
Hamilton Fish of New York, in his final blast to Congress, had something drastic to say anent a new party alignment. This cannot be entirely discounted on the basis of Rep. Fish's obvious distress over his defeat, after two decades of continuous service in Congress.

Finally, let us not forget that there were some 11,000,000 men and women returning to civil life when this war is finally over.
The views and desires of this vast army of voters will have a profound influence on all aspects of our national life. The returning veterans will constitute the biggest single bloc of voters ever known in this country. They can either make or ruin the United States. On the basis of their grand performance during the past three bitter years, we may fairly assume that their influence will be in the right direction and that the country will be greatly benefited by their participation in national affairs.

Now, to get back to my original theme. Here we are at Christmas time, in the midst of the worst war in our entire history.
Furthermore, the current news on the western front is very, very bad. Christmas will seem a mockery to countless thousands of our fighting men. Casualties are mounting and will continue to mount. And yet, here at home, many of us have been nourishing
the hope for months that the war would be over by Christmas. Re-conversion was gradually starting in, only to be halted suddenly.

Well, what can we do about it?
Any number of things, if we only stop to think. Our major effort, of course, should be directed toward the fighting front. Anything we can do to speed the winning of the war, even in a small way, should be done and done promptly. War workers should stay on the job and work harder and faster than ever. All of us, war workers or not, could very well maintain all our contacts as closely as possible with those whom we know in the armed forces. We can all write more frequent letters to the men and women overseas. We can donate our own blood. We can assist the Red Cross. We can do work in our homes. We can open up our homes to servicemen. But why go on? We all know what we can do and what we ought to do. Let's make up our minds to do a lot more in 1945 than we did in 1944.

On the home front, there is also much that can be done. We must, first of all, do our best to see to it that our community is just as fine and just as wholesome as it was when our men and women left us to go to war. We must keep our house in order, govern ourselves wisely, conserve our resources, and plan ceaselessly for the care of our returning servicemen.

Do I hear someone say that these are mere generalities? Very well, let us be more concrete. I have been told within twenty-four hours that our Board of Aldermen and our Newton's Citizens Advisory Committee for Returning Veterans have had some difficulty in seeing eye-to-eye on a number of matters. That may or may not be cause for concern.
The Board and this particular committee have hundreds of difficult problems to work out. It would be a miracle if they DID agree on all policies. My reason for mentioning this matter at all is two-fold. In the first place, it is due to me first from outside of Newton; from an important official in another community. In the second place, it is worth mentioning now because it is vitally important that we all have the proper perspective and keep in mind that the important thing is NOT who shall do what or who gets the credit or the blame for something. The important thing is to make the best possible plans for our returning veterans and to leave no stone unturned in providing them jobs, a decent home and any rehabilitation which may be necessary.

One more word. We all know how much time and energy we waste, especially in political affairs, simply because we do not particularly like some individual.
Let that individual start something, big or little, and immediately the cry is raised, "What is he trying to do now? Is he getting ready to run for Mayor or the Board or something else? It is really rather silly. After all, there are thousands of men and women in Newton who serve unselfishly year after year. Why do the politicians always have to get out the axe when some hard-working soul appears to be getting somewhere with some worthwhile scheme for the benefit of the city?

And so, may I make a quiet plea for just a bit more tolerance and understanding of all our good neighbors. Think what a wonderful thing it would be if we could have the spirit of our annual Community Chest drive throughout the year. Think how much happier we would all be. Why wait until the ravages of time force us to be more peaceful and

Juniors in Record Red Cross Enrollment

Miss Jane Wynna, chairman of Junior Red Cross for the Newton
Chapter, reports a record enrollment in the recent membership drive. This year the Juniors in the Newton public, private and parochial schools collected $2,198.88, a substantial increase over previous years.

In addition to their annual drive, the Newton Red Cross
Juniors have been busy making Christmas favors and gifts for patients in the neighboring Army and Navy hospitals.

Their Christmas projects included the following: For Cushing
Hospital, 150 favors and 150
Christmas napkins; for Veterans' Facility, 150 favors, 125 Christmas napkins, and 125 menu covers;
for Chelsea Naval Hospital, 360 packages of Christmas cards containing 5 cards per package; for Marine Hospital, 100 comic books and 350 favors; for distribution in the various hospitals, 500
Christmas carol books.

Mellow and understanding? Why not go into 1945 with the determination to give the other fellow his just due and to remember that WE do not have a monopoly on all the ability and the unselfish desire to serve our community and our fellow-men?

Dining With Jane and Bill

Bill: Jan!

Jane: Yes, here I am in the kitchen.

Bill: Say what are you doing on a beautiful Saturday afternoon like this?

Jane: You know, I've been promising Junior that he could have some of his gang in for a party during the holidays. We decided this afternoon would be a good time.

Bill: What have you got for eats?

Jane: Oh, I made some peanut butter cookies.

Bill: Sounds good. Want me to get anything? I'll go down to the store for candy if you like.

Jane: I've taken care of it Bill. I thought the kids would like to make molasses popcorn balls so I've got everything ready for that. You can get some wood for the fireplace and call the boys. They're out playing football across the street.

Bill: Working up ferocious appetites no doubt. I'm glad you've got plenty of good fuel for them.

LETTERS -

Thanks to S-Sgt. William Bradley for his suggestion, Sgt. Bill is out in the South Pacific.

Thanks, too, for a swell letter from Captain A. (Peskey) Pescocollido. Wounded a couple times, Peskey still stays in there and now sports the Bronze Medal for all Frenchmen to see.

For Peskey, who inquired, and for whom ever may be interested, Eddie Hickey's address is: Lt. Col. E. A. Hickey . . . H.Q.Y. Force . . . A.P.O. 627 . . . c/o P. M., New York, N. Y.

Tom Waters, in France, writes Tim Riley that he likes the country.

Chief Petty Officer Bob Reynolds has been discharged from the Navy. Bob got in a little flying time when his kitchen was blown up by a Jap bomb. All that was left, according to Bob, was half a spoon.

Sgt. Coleman Conroy, home after two years in the South Pacific, reports that the Newton Lodge last Sunday . . . Chief Petty Officer Jack McGrath caught up with Chief Goddard out in the South P. sometime ago, and while roaming around, writes Jack, actually bumped into another old crony from Newton, Johnny Campbell, also a sailor.

The island rocked that night, but according to McGrath's letter, 'twas caused by an earthquake . . . Many thanks to Sammy Calliguri, in France, for his Christmas card and note. Also to Billy Ford and Al Cassidy, over there, and to Bob Fitzgerald, in the South Pacific. The cards were swiftest and welcome. We'll keep them always. To all of you, everywhere, it's difficult to know just how to say it, but in our small, ineffectual way, we all, the staff of "What's Cookin'", Bill Sullivan, Ben Lewis and yours truly do sincerely wish you a Merry Christmas, and pray you all will be home to celebrate Christmas with us next year.

REPORT ON CHRISTMAS BAZAAR AT COLEY PLAZA

Greene, Miss Lila E. Martin, Dr. Leonie F. Hutchinson, Mrs. A. E. Melvin and Mrs. Myron B. Barstow.

NEWTON HOSPITAL AID ADDS 664 NEW MEMBERS

The names of 664 new members were added to the roll of the Newton Hospital Aid Association through the recent membership drive as reported at the meeting of the board of directors of the Aid association at the nurses' home of the hospital December 12.

Mrs. Frank R. Clark, chairman of the membership campaign, who with her village chairmen had worked for two months, sent a written report which was read by Mrs. Cecil Clark. This brings the total membership in the Newtons and Wellesley to 1,435. Inaugurated in 1880, this is possibly the largest membership the Aid association has attained at any one time.

Mrs. Francis F. Williams, chairman of the Benefit Shop, reported that $400 was made on the Treasure Sale at the November meeting, toward which many of the members donated gifts. She said there are still many requests for roller skates and ice skates at the shop and the need for bedding is acute. Mittens sell rapidly. One member of the association has knitted 43 pairs. Aprons are in demand and toys with which to decorate the Shop windows are needed although there have been many gifts of toys to date.

Mrs. Walter L. McGill, chairman of the Coffee Shop, reported that 7,155 food customers were served in November. This did not include gift shop purchasers. She announced that the Coffee Shop committee was transferring $1,000 to the treasury of the Aid Association and recommended that this be added to the amount given by the association last month for the infant-formula room. This was voted, making a total of $3,500 given to date by the Aid association for this newest hospital project.

Mrs. Oliver Ames Lothrop and Mrs. Benjamin D. Muller were hostesses, and pourers at morning coffee were Mrs. Edwin F. Gibbs and Mrs. C. A. St. Lawrence.

LION'S CLUB HEARS TALK ON EDWARDS OF X-RAY

Edward Harper, a member of the Newton Lions Club spoke at the last meeting of the Club on the subject of X-Rays. He is the District Manager of the Kelley-Koett Manufacturing Co., one of the oldest and largest manufacturers of X-Ray equipment. Not only did the speaker tell of the history and early beginnings of the X-Ray which was discovered by Count Wilhelm Konrad von Roentgen, but he also told of the important uses to which X-Rays are put in the industrial world, especially in the war industries where precision of parts is useless if the component materials are not flawless; it is here that the X-Ray is invaluable and in a great measure is responsible for the high quality of our war machines which are the pride and envy of the world.

In speaking of the therapeutic value of the X-Ray in the treatment of disease, notably cancer, Lion Harper urged the Lions to get back to the Fight Cancer movement, and to also support the fight against tuberculosis which is curable in its early stages, and which is capable of being discovered at its inception through the use of the fluoroscope and X-Ray pictures. Telling of what is being done in the TB field, he praised the City of Lowell, where there is in operation a municipal X-Ray laboratory to which all residents can go for free service in the interest of maintaining a high health rate among Lowellites.

At the conclusion of the talk, there was a business meeting at which the final plans for the Christmas party to be held at the Newtonville Women's Club were announced. This party is under the able direction of Lions Louis Testone and Charlie Monahan who have been working hard to make the event a success.

It was also reported that the sale of tickets for donations to a War Bond Drawing for the benefit of the Sea Scouts is very encouraging. It being very gratifying to see the way in which the public is contributing.

ROTARIANS HEAR TALK ON CITIZENS GROUP ACTIVITIES

War time activities and post-war plans of the Citizens' Committee for Service to Newton Servicemen were outlined by Chairman Roy S. Edwards at the recent meeting of the Newton Rotary Club at the Brae Burn Country Club.

Mr. Edwards, who was introduced by Past President James B. Melcher, told how the committee was instituted four years ago.

He stated that a half million cigarettes had been shipped abroad by the committee during that time; Christmas and birthday cards had been mailed; send-offs arranged for each departing group of inductees, with a service kit for each man; "What's Cookin' in Newton" published and mailed to all servicemen monthly through the joint efforts of the Newton Kiwanis Club and the Newton Rotary Club; that questionnaires had been sent Newton Servicemen relative to plans for the return of Newton veterans after the war; that the Norumbega Council Boy Scouts were mailing over a thousand V-Mail Letters monthly to men overseas.

glass and carry the photostat with you for identification.

We of the last war realized too late the importance of remembering who was near us when wounded, injured or sick, either on this side or overseas.

If you are unfortunate enough to receive a wound in combat, or receive an injury or are confined to a hospital in line of duty, it will help you in the future to have the names and full military particulars of the comrades who were near you when wounded, or when you received the accident or if you were confined to a hospital.

The reason for this is that many World War veterans failed to keep any of these records, and five or ten years after discharge filed for compensation, and in order to prove their claim were asked to supply affidavits from their buddies that they were in the service, and to remember where your buddy lived.

We want you to feel that this is your department for advice and assistance. The smoking land it lit, the gangplank is a loss, and we need your help in a down through the gate to the Department of Veterans' Services.

A PRAYER For the Advent Season by the Rev. Randolph S. Merrill Central Congregational Church Newtonville, Mass.

O God, our Father, who didst send thy Son, Jesus Christ, to preach good tidings to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives, recovery of sight to the blind, and to set at liberty them that are bruised, we offer unto thee our praise and thanksgiving. We earnestly pray that our impoverished souls may be enriched with truth and love; that our wills may be set free from the bondage of mean ambitions and selfish desires; that our blind hearts may be made to see—to see thee walking beside us, and to see, with quick sympathy, the burdens oppressing our fellow men; and that our spirits, bruised by sorrow, failure and sin, may be liberated and healed. In the name of Christ, our Lord, Amen.

SCOUT LEADERS SPEND WEEKEND AT NOBSCOT

The arrangements for the weekend were in charge of Stanley Merrill, chairman of the Senior Scout Committee. He was assisted by William Baxter, John Cox, Warren W. Oliver, Shipper Herbert Smith of Ship 32, L. D. Robinson, H. Davidson, Donald Eldredge, John Starkweather

NEWTON POLICEMEN HAVE "TOUCH OF OLD WEST"

A squad of eight members of the Newton Police Department joined 20 Boston and Metropolitan policemen December 9 in a wild round-up of four steers, who broke away from an unloading platform at the Brighton abattoir and raced three miles before being killed by rifle and shotgun shells.

A radio call for assistance in the chase was received at the Newton headquarters and the roundup crew was organized by Sgts. Patrick J. King, Andrew E. Moran and Philip Purcell, who led their men to Newton corner where they joined the Station 14 and Metropolitan men in cornering the fleeing animals.

Patrolman Harold E. Swanson of Boston, the welshed, shot one which accounted for three of the steers, on Park street, Tremont street and Barner road, Newton. Metropolitan Patrolman Frank Barry downed the fourth animal, who fled down the railroad tracks to Galen street, Watertown.

The animals were part of a carload of western steers assigned to Amos Shapiro in Brighton.

WANDERING RACCOON RETURNED TO OWNER

A pet raccoon, Walter by name, that had never tasted freedom, decided December 8 to see what it was like, and thereby gave the staid folk of Auburndale something to get excited about.

The creature has been the pet of John C. Morris, 12 years old, of 487 W. O. L. street, Auburndale, since infancy (or poodon). The boy captured the baby "coon" in Maine when his dog had mixed it with the mother "coon and the offspring was injured in the melee. John took "alter" home with him and the latter grew up as a member of the household, seemingly content with its lot. It was something of a shock to John to discover that "Walter" had broken out of his pen in the Morris back yard and had taken French leave. The "coon", however, apparently didn't get far. Although the police, who were called in on the search, couldn't find the fugitive, he turned up on the porch of a neighbor of the Morris family the next day and was returned to young John, apparently content that its wanderings were over.

Newton Merry-Go-Round

By Paul Considine

Christmas Week, here at home this year, is coasting in quietly and white, as snow continues to fall throughout New England. It's our first and by the looks, it will be one for the books. The Christmas shoppers, thousands of 'em, are still going strong, with the gals making continued gains, as they buck the line in the general direction of the bargain counters.

Santa Claus is still the lure so far as the little ones are concerned. One tiny bit of fluff, about two years old, informed this department confidentially, as she waited for the trolley with her mummy, that she was going to ask "Sandy Claus" to bring her "Nana's" some nice, new teeth, "so she didn't would have to eat soup allatime."

It's just as easy as that to the Kidlets. They sit on Santa's knee, eyes popping, tell him their needs and, presto, as all childhood knows, Sandy takes it from there. FREE-FOR-ALLS . . .

With everyone working at something or other, there's more spending money around and, just now, it's going for Christmas gee-gaws of every description. The shopping chowds are really something terrific, and so far as the average male is concerned, a couple of fast rounds with Joe Louis would be preferable—by far. The fact that the stores are understaffed, only adds to the general discomfort and confusion. The gals, however, God love 'em, apparently thrive on the daily pre-Christmas free-for-alls.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS . . .

Christmas lights are beginning to appear in the windows around town. One big house in Waban Park features a white bulbbed, candle type fixture in every window. It's a beautiful display. Colored lights in Newtonville and Newton Centre add to the Christmas atmosphere, too. Illuminated trees on West Newton Hill also quietly proclaim the approaching anniversary of the birth of Christ. Christmas is in the air, but it will be a quiet, thoughtful Christmas, this year, and fraught with memories. You, Joe, and You, Jane, it's not the same without you . . . PLANNING . . .

The City Fathers are planning to make the Garden City's transfer point, Newton Corner, a real humdinger of a business center, just as soon as those interested affix their signatures to petitions now being circulated. The plan is to raise the bank building, the Whitman and adjoining structures, so's to provide, "traffic ways, parking space, trolley and bus reservations and shelter, a comfort station and direct outlet from the Square to the Riverway." The City Planning Board has unanimously approved the plan and, on long last, it begins to appear; that the traffic bottleneck there will be eliminated. It will, also, restore Nonantum Square to its former status as an important business center.

to all you men and women in service, wherever you are. We would probably be over-optimistic in wishing you a Merry Christmas but we hope your holidays were as pleasant as difficult wartime conditions would permit.

And thanks for all the greetings, letters and cards we have received from so many of you. It is gratifying to know that our modest efforts in your behalf are appreciated.

We wish you the Best of Luck and a Victorious New Year. See you next Christmas, or much sooner, we hope.

REV. BOOTH CALLED TO N. C. UNITARIAN CHURCH

The Newton Centre Unitarian Church has called as its minister the Rev. Vincent Ravi Booth, who has for a number of weeks been filling the vacancy left by the withdrawal of Rev. L. Wendell Hughes. Dr. Booth retired last summer as minister of the Congregational Church in Bennington, Vermont, where he had served for 25 years.

Dr. Booth was born in Naples, Italy, where his father was a minister. He received his B.A. degree from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1898, and in 1901 an M. A. from the same university and an S.T.B. from Boston University School of Theology. He was awarded an honorary D.D. by Middlebury College in 1920. Ordained a Congregational minister in 1901, he served in Hopdale, Mass., Manchester, Vt., and North Church, Cambridge, Mass., before he went to Bennington in 1919. There he served eight months each year; for four months each year he was pastor of the Community Church at Melbourne Beach, Fla.

While at Bennington Dr. Booth restored the historic old church to its original form, and made it an historical shrine for the whole state of Vermont. He also brought about the restoration or improvement of many other objects of historical interest. He was active in many of Bennington's social and civic affairs, and was instrumental in setting up Bennington College, of which he is the founder.

In addition to his many religious, educational, and civic activities, Dr. Booth has travelled widely over Europe and the Near East,

KELLY GAINS 57 VOTES IN RECOUNT

A net gain of 57 votes for Francis E. Kelly was the result of the Newton recount of the votes in the contest for attorney general, completed December 13 at City Hall.

The original tally on election day gave Clarence A. Barnes 27,553 votes and Kelly 10,049. The change in Newton, according to election officials, was due largely to doubtful votes which were originally listed as blanks by the precinct officers on election day.

The recount started Tuesday morning and consumed two days. The tabulation was conducted at the city clerk's office under the direction of the Board of Registrars of voters.

Sports in a Nutshell

By BILL SULLIVAN

The Canadiens gave the Bruins another beating in the Garden Tuesday night 4-1. It was one corking game with Referee Bill Chadwick allowing Montreal a goal after a foul in to knock goalie Bennett down allowing Blake's shot to go in for the first goal in 17 minutes. Canadiens scored their second goal with only a half minute to go in the first period when O'Connor passed over to Fritsch, who scored. Blake scored their third goal on a pass from Richard in the second period and Richard scored the final one. The Bruins scored their only goal when Egan passed to Cain who whipped it in. Cowley failed to score a point.

The Bruins beat Toronto 5-3 with Harvey Bennett right on his toes stopping 47 shots, 22 of them in the second period, with at least a dozen of his saves on close range shots. Bill Jennings scored two goals. Gaudeault scored two goals and Egan the other goal.

The Bruins won their eighth game Sunday night by beating the Rangers 7-5. Smith and Cain each scored two goals, with Clapper, Mario and Supola each scoring.

Canadians slapped the Bruins down again 8-5 Saturday night when they scored four goals in 3 minutes in the second period. Gaudeault scored 2 goals and Crowley, Cain and Clapper one each. The Bruins have not won in Montreal since the 1942-1943 season.

Newton tied Cambridge Latin 3-3 in their first game in the Greater Boston interscholastic hockey league which opened Friday Dec. 16. Trailing 2-0 in the second period Pynchon got Newton's first goal unassisted, Crafts following with another on Recco's pass. Pynchon put Newton ahead with another solo in the third only to have Costa score to tie it up.

Melrose beat Arlington 3-2; Medford beat Stoneham 5-3; Belmont beat Rindge Tech 5-3.

Newton held Medford to a 4-4 tie Saturday Dec. 16. Bob Barry scored two of Newton's goals while Johnny Recco getting 2 assists and scoring one goal. Newton stayed right with Medford all the way, each team scoring a goal in the first period, and Medford 2 in the second period and Newton 1. Recco tied it up in the third period only to have Medford score again and then Bob Barry scored Newton's final goal on a pass from Recco to give Newton a tie game.

Arlington beat Belmont 8-5, Melrose and Cambridge tied 3-3, and Stoneham beat Rindge 6-1. St. Sebastian put on quite a show by defeating St. Clement's 11-2 in the Catholic Hockey League.

End B. C. 67-39 in a Basket Ball game at the Y. Tufts beat Harvard 57-47 and Dartmouth beat Penn 50-35. Princeton 71, Ford- ham 53 in the College Basketball Games.

The Green Bay Packers became champions of the National League by defeating the New York Giants 14-7. Ted Fritsch scored both touchdowns for the Packers, going through the Giants line at will. In the second period Larks shot 15 yards to the New Yorkers 17, on the next play Fritsch went over right tackle to the one yard line and finally smashed through for the first touchdown on the fourth try. Hutson helped set up the second touchdown for the Packers by taking a pass for 24 yards and when Irv Conn threw another the Giants covered Hutson but Fritsch standing alone took it on the 11 yard line and went over easily. The Giants scored their lone touchdown in the final period. Arnie Herber dug a pass 41 yards to Frank Liebel and Ward Cuff took it over. The Giants beat the Packers four weeks ago 24 to 0 in one of the major surprises of the season but were no match for the Packers this afternoon; but as they were forced to play most of the P. M. without their ace full-back Bill Paschal, the leading ground gainer for the past two seasons, they did very well to hold the Packers to a 14-7 score. The Packers have now won the loop title six times.

This is Christmas week and with the ground covered with snow we think of you Boys over there playing the most important game of all. We think of Sgt. Joe Sheehan who broke the tape on Center St. West Roxbury to win the 10 mile road race, and the way he came thru in the Garden to win the relay race. When everyone had counted his team out, Joe, the anchor man, made up the fifteen yards, and how that GUY cheered the team. Well he took his squad thru Guadalupe and into Peleled with the same spirit of "we've just got to win." We think of Capt. Vaughn Dargie one of the great backs at Malden and Dartmouth who carried that ball with all his heart. He too piloted his crew over Germany. Many times he went thru their line, with that same thought "we've just got to win," and Lt. Ducky Dwyer, an ace all the way, who was an outstanding back at Medford. Many times he crashed thru the opponent's lines, and he too took his crew over Germany time and time again with the same old cry "we've just got to win; and as Ben Louis, Paul Considine and myself review this paper with Phil Ahlin we wonder all we are giving the boys there the news they want? What's Cooking will follow you where ever you go. Tell us what you want us to write, and we will try to give it to you, we four and everyone else in Newton wish you as good a Christmas

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST OF NEWTON

Service—Sunday, 10:45—
Wednesday, 8:00 P.M.

"The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light:
they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined." This passage from the Bible, Isaiah 9:2, comprises the Golden Text to be used in the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in The Mother Church,
The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, December 24.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Christ Jesus," and included in the Bible selections is, "I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed" (Daniel 7:13,14).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook,
"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included in the Lesson-Sermon, "The prophets of old looked for something higher than the systems of their times;
hence their foresight of the new dispensation of Truth. But they knew not what would be the precise nature of the teaching and demonstration of Good, divine Mind, in His more infinite meanings,—the demonstration which was to destroy sin, sickness, and death, establish the definition of omnipotence, and maintain the Science of Spirit" (p. 270).

Kiwanis Governor Speaks At Newton

Governor-Elect Charles Sullivan of Arlington was the speaker at the Newton Kiwanis Club Meeting held Tuesday noon at the Newton YMCA. Other clubs whose members attended in order to hear the address of the New England Governor-Elect were Allston-Brighton, Arlington, Boston, Jamaica Plain, Roslindale, Somerville, Waltham, Wellesley and Newton.

The Governor-Elect's address was directed principally to the Presidents-Elect of the various clubs who will serve in 1945. Benjamin Louis, President-Elect of the Newton Club presided.

The subject of Governor-Elect Sullivan's address was, "Kiwanis Plans in 1945." He outlined the importance of the home clubs in stressing the point that they were the real foundation of a large and influential organization consisting of 2200 clubs, with a membership of 137,000 men scattered throughout the United States and Canada. The New England district which he will serve as Governor next year covers the six New England states and consists of 124 clubs, with a membership of over 7,000.

Membership is limited to professional men and executives who have done in helping boys and girls, underprivileged children, war-time activities and a great deal of work done along other lines. He referred to the meeting which he had just attended during November in Chicago and which covered more than four days of study of the work of Kiwanians and methods of improving its efficiency and organization.

The Governor-Elect outlined the five objectives which had been adopted for the New England clubs:

1. To develop a district conscientious in New England.
2. To be sure that secretaries report all club activities.
3. A drive to be sure that all club reports are filed on time.
4. A ten percent gain in membership.
5. At least one new club in each New England Division.

While the Governor-Elect does not officially take office until the first of the year, he and the governing board have already arranged for a permanent New England District Kiwanis Office to be located at Room 818 Colonial Building, 100 Boylston street, Boston, Mass. A secretarial force will be in attendance here at all times.

Mr. Sullivan also announced that the mid-winter conference of Kiwanis would be held Saturday, January 20, at the Hotel Touraine in Boston. He also said that the international Convention this year would be held in Chicago starting June 25 and that the New England District Convention would be held at the New Ocean House in Swampscott on September 27, 28 and 29.

Pete Pettengill announced that the installation of the new officers of the Newton Club will take place Wednesday evening, January 3.

Rotary Club Meets At Brae Burn Club

The regular meeting was held at the Brae Burn Country Club on Friday noon with President Orville Clapper presiding.

The guest speaker was Mr. Joseph de Vicq of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. and was introduced by Dr. Edward P. Leonard. His subject was "Telephone Directories." He mentioned the fact that Directories are Personalized and compiled to give the best possible service to telephone subscribers and likened the service to the Rotary Club, which has as its motto, "Service Above Self." He said that every directory is checked at least five times to avoid any possibility of errors and last year only 127 errors could be accounted for in the Boston directory which means that there is an error of only about one to each 3000 names in the directory. In addition to the 74 directories issued each year there are daily sheets issued to all exchanges listing changes of listings. Also a monthly Directory listed by streets. In addition to larger directories there are about 71 small books which save the subscribers a lot of time and also the company.

The time of issuing various directories is governed largely by determining when the peak of changes occur in various communities. Boston's peak being from September to November. He mentioned that the type selected is chosen with a great deal of care in order to make the books as easily read as possible. Also called to our attention that all covers of books carry no advertising in order to make them more attractive.

The first directory was a very small one in 1880 for Boston and Brookline. The first Newton book was issued in 1884 and in 1885 the book contained 75 business listings and 41 of the firms who are in the present book. The first classified listings were made in 1925.

The subject proved to be very interesting and made us realize what a large amount of work goes into the making of the books we use each day.

All departments of the club have been active and cooperative for many weeks past in collecting donations or contributing gaily trapped gifts for the red tarlatan Christmas bags which have been made and filled and sent to our boys in the hospitals, on ships and in camps. Mrs. Maurice W. Dennison, head of the Gift Division of War Services has also collected and filled over 100 bags for various hospitals and camps.

The Community Service Committee, with Mrs. Samuel A. Nash, chairman, has been busy filling bags for World War I veterans and among many other projects has been playing Santa Claus to some of the children at the Peabody Home. Mrs. Fred T. Field, chairman of Christmas Seal Division, has been ably assisted by her committee, Mrs. Leo E. Davison, Mrs. Harold Wooster, Mrs. John Dewey, Mrs. Fred J. Fawcett and Mrs. Arthur Kendrick. Thousands of Christmas Seals have been sent through the mails and the appeal has met with a hearty and spontaneous response.

Mrs. G. E. Rawson and her committee have furnished decorative atmosphere to suit the occasion at every meeting which has enjoyed the harmony and enjoyment of each individual program. Christmas decorations added to the festive air of the usual social half hour and tea which followed the program. The tea table, attractively decorated with Christmas centerpiece was presided over by Mrs. William T. Cass, Mrs. John A. Boppert, Mrs. Edward R. Aldrich and Mrs. Edward F. McAleer.

Hardware Dealers Association Will Hold Convention

Lucius C. Chandler, of J. H. Chandler & Son, Newton Center, president of the New England Hardware Dealers Association, will serve on the Exhibit Committee for the Association's 52d annual convention and exhibit to be held February 20, 21 and 22 at the Hotel Statler, Boston.

Although patterned on prewar shows, the 1945 exposition will be over larger, in fact Russell R. Mueller, the Association's Executive Secretary, announces that 30% additional show space, over that used in prewar displays, has been contracted for.

Dealer attendance also will exceed that in recent years. Speakers prominent in the fields of business, economics and national affairs—men who have made a particular study of problems confronting small industries in the reconversion period, will present their solutions at the convention and it is expected that at least one of the speakers will include in his discussion of postwar credit planning, material on business loan provisions which are part of the G. I. Bill of Rights.

An innovation this year will be the opportunity to place orders for displayed merchandise either for immediate delivery or on some new items, for delivery after the war. Many staple hardware items will have their first preview, for instance in electrical equipment, merchandise added to hardware sales during the war period will be shown, also hardware finishes, prewar products—in new design.

Red Cross Needs Type "O" Blood Donors

An urgent appeal for type "O" blood donors is being made by the Red Cross. "With the new counter-offensive in progress in Belgium and Germany," says Mrs. C. Terry Collins, chairman of the Blood Donor Service for Newton Red Cross, "our casualties are growing every hour, and we have been asked to rush whole blood to the front in order to have the lives of our boys. If you are a type 'O' the blood you give today will be a transfusion the next day."

Transportation to and from the Boston Collection Center will be given by Motor Corps as long as the emergency lasts. Phone LA-sell 6000 for an appointment. Mrs. Collins reports that when she told Mr. Edward N. Brown of Newton Raytheon that Type "O" donors were badly needed, he gathered together 38 donors in a very short time in his company and sent them into the Center. They were transported by the following members of the Newton Red Cross Motor Corps: Miss Grace Cummings, Miss Jean Harvey, Mrs. D. Morley Lodge and Mrs. William McAdams.

THE NEW YEAR

The dawn of the New Year, 1945, finds this nation in the most precarious situation in its eventful and gallant history. The bravest heart must look ahead with anxiety to the future even if there is no doubt as to the final outcome. How then shall we meet this new year? Surely not with smug complacency that the war in which we are engaged will work out to a satisfactory conclusion without any aid from us; not with a feeling of false security because the demands of total war have not yet reached us to a point of unusual hardships.

The task of those on the home front are as demanding as those actively engaged on the fighting fronts. The enemy can only be outdone in battle if outdone in sacrifice at home. Outdone in the sacrifice of time, toil, money and in whole-hearted devotion to one main objective—winning the war. And there are other ways, and probably the most important, outside of buying your share of War Bonds, is to contribute at the Blood Donor Center. Blood plasma has already done wonders among the wounded and it has saved many lives. Much more is needed. If you have not yet given, make it your business to do so immediately. And if you have already given—give again.

A hard and grim year lies ahead but our manner of tackling it as a people and as individuals may decide the kind of New Year we shall enjoy for many years to come.

Newton Groups Assist Red Cross in Spreading Xmas Cheer

Christmas has come to many service men in action, and also in hospitals because groups of Newton women responded so generously to the appeal sent out for gifts by Mrs. Edward J. Cannon, chairman of the Camp and Hospital Council of the Newton Red Cross. "Once more, the citizens of Newton have come to the fore," said Mrs. Cannon, "and have made it possible for many a lonely boy at sea or in a hospital ward to believe there really is a Santa Claus."

Some of the groups donating gifts wrapped presents for the men who were at sea on Christmas day and for patients at the Cushing General Hospital were the Surgical Dressing Unit of Newton, Mrs. M. W. Dennison, chairman; Surgical Dressings Unit of Newtonville, Mrs. L. F. Heath, chairman; Newton N. E. Telephone and Telegraph Co. employees under the direction of Miss Charlotte McGrath, chief operator; and Newton City Hall employees under the leadership of Miss Mary C. Mahan.

Miss Mary Merrill, a member of the Nurse's Aide Corps, was instrumental in having 40 complete ditty bags donated to the Cushing Hospital patients by the employees of the John Hancock Insurance Company of Boston. Another Newton Nurse's Aide, Miss Dorothy Aberle, obtained donations of shaving lotion and playing cards for the Cushing Hospital patients from employees of the Haartz-Grower Co. of Watertown.

Gift packages and filled stockings for the patients at the Wal-tham Regional Hospital were donated by the Newtonville Circle of Trinity Church under Mrs. Curtis Mosher, Newton Junior Community Club under Miss Rhoda White, the Circle of the Central Congregational Church of Newtonville under Mrs. J. Herbert Weeks, and the Chi-Rho Society of Newton Centre.

The Surgical Dressings Units of the city donated a 12-foot tree and complete trimmings and lights for the Naval Dispensary in Boston, where dependents of Naval men are hospitalized and cared for while the men are serving their country. Members of Newton Junior Red Cross made 100 beautiful stuffed animals which were put under the tree for the sailors' children who may be hospitalized there now or in the future.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

Election Aftermath

It is now painfully obvious that the American people were carefully kept in the dark prior to election regarding a lot of matters which were strictly their business. We were allowed to think that all was peace and harmony between England and the United States; we were lulled to sleep whenever any harsh sound dared to speak aloud about the reticence of Russia to say boo about her own plans for post-war Europe. (By the way, do you remember the time when Mr. Stalin was extremely vocal about starting up a second front in western Europe? WE seem to need a second front on the eastern sector right now, but our press says mighty little about it.) We heard very little about what went on in China. Now we suddenly read about a very bad internal situation which involves the heart and soul of the Chinese government. General Chiang Kai-shek. Another leader is looming up on the horizon. France goes to work and makes a long-term fancy pact with Russia. How much do any of us know about this? Will the document fit in all right with the post-war plans of the Dumbarton Oaks conference? If not, what then? Worst of all, we are suddenly advised, in our President's most casual manner, with the usual touch of ill-placed humor, that the famous Atlantic Charter is really quite informal and was written on some odd scraps of paper. However, it so happens that this justly famous document is duly recorded in the official records and cannot be laughed off. Several prominent columnists have already quoted it in detail. There is no mistaking what it said. It was very specific about such things as the rights of small nations to determine their own form of government, without pressure or dictation from ANY outside source.

Of course, what I am driving at in this instance is the deplorable situation in Greece, where England is busy using her armed might to put down a so-called rebellion. Some of us are wondering if any lend-lease materials are being used here. Some brave souls in Congress are proposing to make careful inquiry into the entire lend-lease situation in the near future. It is high time that this was done.

Another phase of the general situation is this; the United States is currently bearing the brunt of the fighting on the western front. The ratio of armed forces is, I am told, about seventy to thirty, between our country and the British Empire. In other words, we are now "holding the bag" for the Allies on the crucial fighting front as well as playing our customary vital role as the chief producer of the weapons of war. Again, some of us are wondering where we are going to come out when this war is over. Are we sacrificing several hundred thousand lives of our fighting men and burdening future generations with a staggering debt for nothing? Is permanent peace a myth? We were once holding the British Empire together and giving Russia carte blanche to organize post-war Europe in any manner she may desire?

What we need today, and we need it badly, is more information about what goes on behind the scenes. It is time that the American people were told, and told in simple language, what the score is. It is time that we knew WHY it took all this time to decide to close down the horse track, one of the most flagrant sources of man-power and material waste imaginable. We have paper salvage drives at the same time that horse-track sheets are flooding every big city in the country. Telephone materials are scarce and yet there must be hundreds of thousands of phones used for nothing but race-track purposes. And yet we have to wait until absenteeism in war plants becomes so scandalous that Mr. Byrnes steps in and "quells" the closing of horse and dog tracks.

Let's get on with the war and stop fooling. Let's tell our representatives in Congress what we think about the other vital matters.

National G.O.P. Director
The Republican party may have a national director to keep the pot boiling in between elections. It is a sound idea. Furthermore, it appears to be the only way in which the G.O.P. is likely to come back to power. It is interesting to note that Senator Sinclair Weeks is one of the chief sponsors of the idea. More power to him. Incidentally, it is not surprising to note that Gov. Dewey is having difficulty in keeping the G.O.P. cohorts in line. They do not seem to be unduly anxious to follow his lead right now. I can not help wondering what fate has in store for this brilliant man, who rose to great heights so suddenly and then lost the big gamble for the top spot.

The Senate
It is a relief to learn that Senator Arthur Coolidge of Medford will be the presiding officer of our State Senate next year. The leadership here will be a bit stronger than in the lower House, which is further handicapped by having to select a new Chairman of the important Ways and Means Committee.

NEWTONICS

By Dorothy Williams

AMERICAN EYES ARE OPENED. The rose-colored glasses of an easy and speedy victory are at last off the eyes of our American workers. And it took some pretty startling headlines to do the job. When Belgium was re-invaded, it struck home—and struck home pretty hard with many of the young wives of America. For that's where their husbands or brothers are—in the thick of it. As the casualties come in, it certainly must disturb the consciences of these persons who have taken a back seat in this war wishfully waiting for peace to be declared at any hour. Many of our generals have declared that we have reached the crisis of this war and as in the crisis of a sick person—it's touch and go. It is the person that has the most solid reserves that will survive. We at last know that the Germans are not going to surrender without being driven over the American boy that they can. They are trying and surprise moves are their military specialty. This is a challenge to every American woman to get into a war job at Raytheon's Radio Receiving Tube Division and beat the Nazi at his own game and win the prize.

THEY SPEAK FROM EXPERIENCE. Two wounded veterans told of their action-packed experiences in the Pacific and European areas at the Attendance Banners presentation ceremony held in the cafeteria of Raytheon's Radio Receiving Tube Division, Newton.

Speaking to the attendance award winners, Lt. Com. Russell Peck, who was in the Maritime Service since 1933, told of his narrow escape when torpedoed half a dozen times while participating in the Mediterranean and Normandy Invasions.

Pointing out to what lengths the Jap will sacrifice himself for his country, the Lt. Commander cited an incident which he witnessed in the Philippines. A small Japanese boy ran up to a group of American soldiers and actually threw himself into their midst. The boy was carrying a hand grenade—and blew himself and the Americans to bits.

The second speaker, Sgt. Ralph F. Robbins, U. S. Army Rangers, told of the doctor's finding 75 pieces of shrapnel in his leg. Due to the excellent medical service, he said, the leg was saved. Sgt. Robbins also spoke of the fine work the medical corps were doing in England and Scotland. "I cannot say enough in praise for all concerned."

Following the talk of the two servicemen, Edward N. Brown, chairman of the Blood Donors Committee and resident of 185 Walnut street, West Newton, briefly pointed out that the speaker had received several blood transfusions which helped to save their lives.

THEY GET AROUND. Tube Head Tim's nephew, a sergeant in the U. S. Army, was sighted in Cairo under the supervision of one of the native guides. As the desert sun rose, the sergeant grew warmer and warmer until finally he said, "Gee, it's hotter than Hades here." "Ah," breathed the guide in unceasing admiration, "You Americans go everywhere!"

MOLAL BOOSTER FROM PUERTO RICO. A war job and native dancing are the contributions to fighting America made by Luz Ayala, Puerto Rican beauty and employee of the Newton plant. At the end of her day's work as a short-temper in Dept. 108, Luz Ayala lives at 77 Nichols Ave., Watertown, dons her costume and turns the U.S.O. Clubs and Army camps presenting her native dances and songs.

Luz Ayala's career developed quite by accident when she came from Puerto Rico a few years ago to care for an ailing couple in the States. While here, she broke out and she was unable to leave this country. With a boy friend in the Merchant Marine, her next step was quite natural—she took a war job with Raytheon. Luz now has eight months' work to her credit.

Determined to make morale-building as well as tube-building her personal business, Luz joined the U.S.O. and has toured New England Army camps and Naval hospitals singing and dancing to her famous Puerto Rican style.

Recent Weddings

Rosen - Ulian
Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Ulian of 24 Hamlin road, Newton Centre, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Beverly Ulian, to Pfc. Bernard Rosen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Rosen of Mattapan.

The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Kalman Friedman in Temple Emanuel, Newton Centre, at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 9. A reception followed in the vestry. Miss Elyse Ulian was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Edith Pollan of Newark, N. J., and Miss Anne Stillman of Everett. Dr. Irving Rosen was the best man.

The bride is a senior at Simmons College. Pfc. Rosen attended Harvard University and is now stationed at Camp Crowder, Miss.

Newton Red Cross Has New Members

Mrs. C. Terry Collins, chairman of Blood Donor Service of the Newton Red Cross, announces two additional members to the Gallon Club: Mr. Benjamin M. Whelden, of 516 Commonwealth avenue, Newton Centre, who has contributed ten times and WAC Pfc. Marjorie Munsil of Newton Highlands, formerly a Newton school teacher and now stationed at Washington Lee University, Lexington, Va., who has contributed fourteen pints.

The Newton Red Cross officials have announced that there is now available at the Red Cross blood donor centers, a newly designed Red Cross blood plasma label on which each donor may sign his or her name and dedicate the blood in honor of a relative or friend in the armed forces. The labels will be pasted on the standard Army-Navy packages of blood plasma which are shipped to the troops overseas. The new plan has been devised as a result of numerous requests from all parts of the country that there be some way whereby blood donations could be dedicated in honor of those now serving in the armed forces.

Red Cross points out that today the need for blood is greater than ever before. As the armed forces move forward more and more donors are needed. "In fact," says Mrs. Callum, "it would be impossible to think of a finer Christmas present than a donation of blood in honor of a man who must spend his Christmas fighting overseas." Make your appointment by calling the Chapter House, Lasell 6000.

Introducing the New Storette* Envelope for War Bonds

AS an additional service to our depositors, we have recently devised the new Storette Envelope system for the safe-keeping of War Bonds. No other bank in the country offers this precise form of service. We will supply you with a strong Storette envelope in which you may place your War Bonds for safe-keeping — without charge — in our vaults. There's no fuss, no bother, no red tape. You know your bonds are safe! And your own personal Storette Envelope is available to you at any time during banking hours so you may deposit additional bonds if you wish.

Note: We regret that State Savings Bank Statutes prohibit us offering this public service to any except our own depositors. However, if you have an account in our Savings Department, or one of our numerous savings clubs, you are entitled to take advantage of this free and convenient service or you may open a new account for as little as one dollar.

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

Service—Sunday, 10:45—Wednesday, 8:00 P. M.

"Christian Science" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be given in the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, December 31.

The Golden Text, "The prophecy came not in old time but by the will of him that is God," is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be given in the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, on Sunday, December 31.

Other Bible citations include, "Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge. That thy trust may be in the Lord, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee. . . . That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee" (Proverbs 22:17, 19, 21).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Through Christian Science religion and medicine are inspired with a divine nature and essence; fresh visions are given to faith and understanding, and thoughts acquaint themselves intelligently with God" (p. 107).

Dining With Jane and Bill

Jane: Bill, will you bring in the milk for me? The milkman surely ought to be here by this time. Gee, Sunday mornings are wonderful—late breakfast—no rushing around to get you and Junior off for the day.

Bill: Here's the milk and it's rather warm. It has been sitting in the sun.

Jane: Oh, that won't matter; it hasn't been on the doorstep more than 2 or 3 hours.

Bill: Maybe we ought to build a box for the milk so that, if it ever has to stand, the sun won't get at it.

Jane: I've never had any trouble with it souring. We use it up so quickly. I don't know as I'd bother with a box.

Bill: Well, I still don't think it does it any good to leave it out there in the sun.

Bill Scores:

Recent research shows that although a few hours of sunlight may have little effect on the souring of milk, it may change the nutritive value considerably.

At the Idaho Experiment Station it was found that milk left in the sunlight for 2 hours lost nearly 50% of its riboflavin (vitamin B2), and in 6 hours lost from 70 to 80%.

In another study it was found that when milk was allowed to stand 6 hours in the shade there was only a slight loss of riboflavin (10%). Thus the heat from the sun does not have as much effect on the riboflavin as the direct sunlight.

Milk is one of the best sources of riboflavin. One pint of milk daily furnishes about half of the daily recommended allowance for this vitamin.

The people of the neighborhood have become accustomed either to seeing him start off in his immaculate suit, long whiskers and shiny high boots or to hearing him drive in late at night after some party. The Roto section of a Sunday paper showed him reading "Three Little Pigs" to Oliver, Judy and Lorene Noonan, children of Oliver B. Noonan, 75 Walker street, Spot-Shot photographer for a Boston daily. In civilian life he is known as Edwin F. Brown and lives with Mrs. Brown and their two daughters, Virginia and Lois, at the above address after Santa returns North. ## Speaks on S. B. Life Ins. at Lions Club

Emphasizing the importance of having the right tools when undertaking any job, William G. Read, Field Secretary of the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council, told a meeting of the Newton Lions Club on Thursday that life insurance is unique in that it is the only tool whereby we can guarantee our future earning power to our families.

Speaking on the subject of "Time Insurance", Mr. Read considered time in terms of future earnings capacity, and pointed out that most of our plans depend on a great extent on our remaining alive and working in order to complete them.

"We can replace uncertainty with certainty for our families," he declared, "by laying aside a portion of our income for payment of premiums on life insurance. As most of us cannot afford to buy an adequate amount of insurance to replace our entire income if premature death occurs, our problem is how to get the most protection for what we can afford to spend."

Mr. Read reviewed the advantages of various types of policies from the standpoint of benefits and costs and stressed the importance of keeping life insurance programs as flexible as possible in order to meet changing circumstances.

Pointing out that the Savings Bank Life Insurance plan, whereby policies are issued over the counter to people who buy on their own initiative, has resulted in substantial savings to policyholders, Mr. Read expressed the opinion that the future of over-the-counter insurance will prove extremely bright.

"Economic readjustments of workers due to conversion to peacetime activities," he said, "will increase the importance of the dollar or two per week that may be saved through over-the-counter insurance. In addition, war veterans, accustomed to low cost insurance protection and educated by the Government to its benefits, will no doubt constitute an excellent market for savings bank policies."

Kiwanis Club

The meeting of the Kiwanis Club last Tuesday was in charge of Ed Pease, program chairman. Several of the members who had been inducted during the year, were seated at the head table, and were informally introduced again to the older members.

Walter Hood, retiring president, delivered his swan-speech. President-elect Ben Louis spoke on the aims and plans of the club for the coming year. Others who spoke were Leo Noel, outgoing treasurer, and Ed Derocher, retiring secretary.

A moment of silent prayer was observed for the boys who are sacrificing their lives to stem the German invasion.

Installation of officers will be held on Wednesday, January 3, at the Woodland Golf Club. Beginning January 10th, the weekly meetings will be held on Wednesdays, instead of Tuesdays, at the Newton YMCA.

Rotary Club

Ninety-seven per cent of the persons questioned in a recent poll believe in God, Rev. Thomas M. Herlihy, S.J., pastor of St. Ignatius' Church of Chestnut Hill, stated in a "Christmas Message" at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club of Newton held last Friday at the Brae Burn Country Club, West Newton.

President Orville O. Clapper presided at the meeting and Eugene J. Campbell introduced the speaker.

Father Herlihy stated that everyone is yearning for happiness and some people find it in hobbies. He pointed out the wonderful things God created for men to enjoy since the beginning of time, including the moon and stars and animals for food. He said that God has done His part to make man happy, but in many cases man had not done his share. "Religion has helped many men to happiness," Father Herlihy said. "We need a definite purpose in life. We must give praise, be reverent and give service. We live to work out our salvation. We must have an objective, an indomitable will to do," he concluded.
